Madrid, October 8, N. S.

ON the 1st Instant his Catholick Majesty declared, that the Contracts of the two Marriages, one for the Prince of Asturias his Son with the Infanta of Portugal, and the other for the Prince of Brazil with the Infanta of Castile his Daughter, were happily concluded; upon which most of the Grandees and the Nobility went from hence to St. Ildefonso, and paid the Compliments of Congratulation to their Catholick Majesties and kissed their Hands. The same Day his Catholick Majesty named the superior Officers for the Prince of Asturias's Court, viz the Duke de Bejar Lord Steward, the Count de St. Estevan del Puerto Master of the Horse, and the Count de Salazar Lord Chamberlain, who is also to continue in his Employment of Governour of the said Prince. His Catholick Majesty also appointed the Duke de Banos his Ambassadour Extraordinary to the King of Portugal, in order to make the Demand of the Infanta there, a Portuguesse Nobleman of the first Rank being expected here with the same Character, to demand the Infanta of Castile. The Queen of Spain being with Child, his Catholick Majesty has given Orders for returning hither with the whole Court; and that her Majesty may pass with more Safety over the Mountains of Guadarama, where the Roads are very bad and dangerous, she is to be carried in a Chair, for which Purpose a great Number of Chairmen have been sent for: They will be two Days upon the Road from St. Ildefonso to the Escorial, and after some short Stay there will come hither to the Royal Palace, where the Queen is to lye in. His Catholick Majesty has been pleased to order that all the Persons who are detained in Prison for having served the Emperour in the late Wars shall be forthwith set at Liberty, and that all the Estates which have been confiscated on that Account shall be restored to their Owners, according to the Tenour of the 9th Article of Peace between Spain and the Emperour. Letters from Malaga of the 2d Instant advise, that the Marquess Mari failed again from thence on the 28th inst, with two Spanish Men of War under his Command, in order to proceed to Barcelona, and that the two other Ships of his Squadron are to go to Cadiz, from whence 'tis said they are designed for the West-Indies.
