From Saturday January 8. to Tuesday January 11. 1725.

Whitehall, January 9.

THIS Evening His Majesty came through the City of London, and arrived at His Palace of St. James's in perfect Health, God be praised.

St. James's, Jan. 11. This Day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London waited on His Majesty, to congratulate him on His safe Arrival; and Mr. Recorder made their Compliments to His Majesty, by the following Speech:

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, most humbly intreat Your Majesty's Permission to congratulate Your safe Return to Great Britain;

These Your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects have a just Sense of the many Blessings they enjoy under Your Majesty's mild, prudent, and auspicious Reign;

They beg Leave to express their Satisfaction in observing that Your Majesty's Cares (while Abroad) have been extended, not only for the Welfare of Your Subjects of this Realm, but that Your Majesty has shewn a generous Benevolence for the Relief of the Injured, and for the Protection of the Distressed: That Your Majesty has espoused the Cause of Liberty and the Protestant Religion, and exerted Your Vigilance and Zeal for preserving the Tranquillity of Europe.

These Your Majesty's laudable Endeavours for the Benefit of Mankind, proclaim Your Majesty's Goodness and Humanity, and will be lasting Monuments of Your Glory.

Your Majesty's most tender and fatherly Indulgence to your own People, will be always esteemed their peculiar Happiness, will be always attended with their most grateful Acknowledgments, with their sincere Affection to Your Majesty's Person, their hearty Endeavours for the Support of Your Government, and with their most ardent Wishes for the Continuance of Your Majesty's Health and Prosperity.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer,

I Take very kindly this Mark of your Duty and Affection to Me: You may assure your selves, That My Endeavours shall never be wanting to promote the Trade, Prosperity, and Happiness of the City of London.

His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Francis Porten, Esq; Alderman and Sheriff, and Jeremiah Murden, Esq; the other Sheriff.

In the Press, and will be Publish'd in a few Days.
