My Lords and Genilemen,

Have with great Satisfaction obeyed His Majefty's Commands, in giving His Royal Affent to those good Laws which have been prepared by you during this Seffion ; and am perfwaded they will not only contribute to the Advancement of the Protestant Religion, but also to the Peace and Tranquility of the Country, and to the Preferva-tion and Increase of the Trade of this Kingdom. His Majesty's Goodness in giving you the Bill, for the more easy passing of Sheriffs Accounts, is a fresh Instance of His Royal Favour, and Care to promote upon every Occasion the Security and

Eafe of His People. Gentlemen of the Houle of Commons, I am commanded by His Majefty to return you fully given for the Support of the Eftablifament: I must likewise particularly acknowledge the late Inftance of your inviolable Attachment to His Majesty's Interest and Service, which you have shewn by that unanimous Resolution, whereby you have enabled His Majefty to give an imme-diate Credit to the Warrants for clearing the Army, and the Half-Pay Officers, and to put the Forces upon this Establishment into a Condition to difcourage all Attempts of our Enemies.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It has been my earneft Defire, ever fince my coming to this Government, to promote every thing to the utmost of my Power, which I thought might conduce to His Majesty's Service, and the general Good of this Kingdom ; and your refpective Addreffes give me Reafon to hope, that my Endeavours having proved to your Satisfaction, have not been altogether unfuccefsful. I queftion not but by your Vigilance in your feveral Stations throughout the Country, effectual Care will be taken, that those who have it in their Inclinations, may not be able to diffurb the publick Peace; to the Prefervation of which Nothing can contribute more, than a due and impartial Execution of the Laws, which, under God, are the chief Security of our Conflictution in Church and State, and a frift Union among Protestants, who ought at this Time, when all Europe feems alarmed, to be particularly active against the Designs of the Pretender and his Adherents.

I cannot put an End to this Seffion, without expreffing how agreeable it has been to me to obferve, from Time to Time, the many Marks of Loyalty and Affection which you have fhewn to His Majefty's Sacred Perfon, to His Royal Family and Government : And I fhall not fail, on my Return into His Majefty's Prefence, to make a faithful Report to His Majefty of the dutiful Behaviour of His loyal Subjects of Ireland.
