Lisbon, April 6, N. S.

ON the 26th past Manoel de Tavora di Noronha, Commendatary of the Order of Malta, presented his Portuguesse Majesty with the annual Present of Hawks from the Grand Master of that Order. On the 28th his Majesty went to Mafra, to see the Convent that is building there at his own Expence, and returned to this Place the next Day. On the 25th His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Colchester, the Honourable Captain George Clinton Commander, arrived here in four Days from Gibraltar: And on the 28th a Dutch Man of War put into this Port very much disabled by an Engagement with an Algerine at the Streights Mouth; the Captain and 36 of the Men are wounded. Another Dutch Man of War put into St. Ubes, being likewise disabled in the same Engagement. The Algerine had the good Fortune to escape, being favoured by a Calm. These are the two Men of War that convoyed the Dutch Fleet to St. Ubes, and had Orders to cruize off the Coast for three Weeks, and return hither in order to convoy the same Ships back again to Holland. The 10th Instant is the Day appointed for the sailing of the Pernambuco Fleet. There are Twelve Ships for Pernambuco, under the Convooy of the St. Lourenço Man of War of Forty Guns, two for Paraiba, one for Angola, one for the Rio de Janeiro, and one for Nova Colonia, besides two large Ships for Goa.
