

Licence first had for that Purpose, or the Bins of Malt being first publish'd, in Defraud of the Crown; The Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Duties, caused an Information in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney-General to be exhibited against him, for marrying one Robert Stickles, and Thomas Bennett, in manner aforesaid; and Mr. Kingsbury having plead'd thereto, and the Cause being at Issue, came on to be tried at the last Assizes for the County of Essex, when a Verdict was obtained against him for 200l. His Majesty's said Commissioners have caused this Publick Notice to be given, in Hopes thereby to prevent for the future a Practice so prejudicial to the Revenue under their Care.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.
