Stockholm, May 25, O. S.

WE have just now received Advice from Elfenabb, that Sir Charles Wager having been joined by the Nassau and Port-Mahon on the 20th, set sail at Three this Morning, with the Squadron under his Command, for the Gulph of Finland. The Wind was fair for his getting out of the Scheeren, but not for his advancing farther Eastwards at present. By the last Letters from Petersbourg, which are of the 13th Instant, we have an Account, that the Land Forces which had been drawn together near that Place, were sent to work on the Ladoga Canal, and the Fortifications at Cronflot. The Czarina's Journey to Riga began to be doubtfully spoken of, and they talked of nothing more than exercising their Men as usual. The last Mail going from Stockholm to Petersbourg was stolen and carried off, about 12 Miles on this side Petersbourg, having in it some Money and Bills belonging to Swedish Merchants. The Emperour's Accession to the Treaty of Stockholm is not yet ratified.

Hague, June 14, N. S. A Project has been proposed to the States of Holland, upon which the respective Members of the States are to consult their Towns before they return to meet here again; which is, to lay a Tax upon all Places and Offices, (the Gentlemen in the Regency and the Officers of the Courts of Justice excepted,) and to apply the Produce of it to the intended Augmentation of the Forces. The States General having notified to the Province of Utrecht the Resolution of Groningen to accede to the Treaty of Hanover, have since fixed a certain Time to the said Province for their coming into it; declaring otherwise their being resolved to proceed in that Affair without the said Province. Mr. Finch, the French Ambassador, and the Prussian Minister, had Conferences with the Deputies of the States General Yesterday and to Day, and are to have another To-morrow, and it is not in the least doubted, but that the Difficulties which have hitherto obstructed the Affair of the Accession to the Treaty of Hanover will soon be removed.

Paris, June 14, N. S. The King having resolved to take the Government of his Kingdom into his own Hands, has suppressed the Employment of Prime Minister. The Bishop of Frejus is under his Majesty to have the Inspection of the several Departements of the Government.

Dublin, May 28. This being His Majesty's Birth-Day, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon there was a numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment the Lords Justices, before whom a Song was performed; and at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, June 6, 1726.

Information having been laid before His Majesty, that on the 13th of May last, in the Night-Time, the House, Barns, Stables, and Outhouses of John Iborne, Under-keeper of Bear-Wood Walk in Windsor Forrest, were maliciously set on Fire and burnt, the said Thorne and his Family narrowly escaping with their Lives; and there being Reason to believe that the same was done by some wicked Persons, for his endeavouring to preserve the Herbage, Timber, and Covert in his said Walk: His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders who shall discover the rest, so as they may be convicted; and also a Reward of Fifty Pounds to such Discoverer.
