Stockholm, June 1.

LETTERS from Petersbourg of the 20th of May, O. S. advise, that the Czarina's Court was under the greatest Uneasiness and Consternation at the News of the British Fleet's advancing that Way, and had immediately given Orders for reinforcing the Garrisons of Wibourg, Cronflot, Revel, and Riga. A Merchant Ship which came from Revel the 20th of May brings an Account, that an Express was come thither from Petersbourg with Orders forthwith to unrig the Men of War that were equipped there, and to land the Ammunition and Provisions which were on board them; which was accordingly done the Night after the Express arrived; and the Ships were at the same Time haled up as high into the Harbour as possible; three or four Regiments were likewise ordered to march into that Town immediately to reinforce the Garrison.

of a coarser Alloy than the Standards appointed by Law, and not being marked with one or more of the Marks following, v. z. The Lyon's Head erased, and the Figure of a Woman called Britannia for new Sterling Silver; the Leopard's Head Crown'd and the Lyon passant, for the old Sterling Silver; and the last two Marks for Gold Wares. The said Company being determined carefully to discharge the Trust reposed in them, and to prevent (as much as in them lies) all Frauds and Abuses in the said Trade, have thought fit hereby to caution all His Majesty's Subjects from buying any Wares of Gold or Silver that have not one or more of the said Marks stamped thereon, if capable of bearing the same. And also advise all Buyers strictly to inspect the larger Plate, and see that the Marks are not sodered thereto, or counterfeited, both which are notorious Frauds and difficult to discover.
