Imperial Majesties service, shall be turnéd over into

The Prince of Transilvania, bath renewed his instances in this Court, for the obtaining a general pardon, for such of the Hungarina Nobility, as have fled into his Dominions, thought as is laid, with little hopes of success in it. The Emperor hath ratified the Treaty lately roncluded between the Elector and Town of Cologne, which hath been accordingly sent by an Extraordinary Courrier to the Marquis de Grana, who continues in those parts. The publick Prayers are continued in all Churches here with great devotion, on the occasion of the Empreles being with Child.

Hamburgh, February 2. Amongst the preparations of our Neighbors, there are some that seem tions of our Neighbors, there are fond that feen particularly to concern us; for from Concentagen we are again allowmed with the deligns of that King, to renew his pretences upon this Town; and in the mean time: Branch feems no less apprehensive of the great Forces of the Smedes, which they intend to bring this figuring into that Province.

At Copinhages was arrived from oweden the Counted Occupierus on an arrand, as was there repossed, of great importance, though feemingly onely a congratular, the Birth of the young Prince. Hague, February 11. Here is, 22 we are told, artived stoniche Count at Madrid; the Ratisscations of our Treaty with that Crown is as it was concluded here by the Spanish Minister, Non Entanuel de Lyris; but of this we must appeal to hear with mosts nervainty, I the Seates General have resolved to neithforce all their Statissions among and especially those which seem most exposed to Borneigh accompany.

In the Assembly soft the States Generally for the railfing of more Forces shefides those already sconfentted to by the respective Provinces uses likewise she encounting this years Equipage, though nothing has sayet been resolved in either.

4. By Letters from nous a mballadow as Paris, we have advice, of the ground reparations his most Christian Majesty continues to make a without publickly declaring as yet; against whom they are intended on and that the digid. Amballation delignate return from this Court, a hout the beginning of the next Months, having lately received Lesters from the States Generaling that behalf. I card Municipal and Munday last armived here Prince Maurits of Massac, who went imprediately to the meeting of the Commissioner suppointed by the States of Molland, for the duarding the Officers they intend to employ higher new Leaties; the Vest Marshal Wurzel being there likewise presents, their accordingly the field Officers were adminated, and the next day their Commissions distributed to ithe according to the Commissions of the Marshal Wurzel their Commissions distributed to ithe according to the day sold the day sold the day sold and their respective inferior Officers.

The Prince of Courland.

The Prince of Courland.

The Prince of Courland.

Theredad Bube di Rotheyn:

18th Marquis din Monpouillon.

The Siour Genard Branch.

The Siour Genard Branch.

The Siour Faceb van Brenipi.

The Chief John Scons

The Countage of Boduste;

The Countage Folepholan Cacceleur.

The Countage Folepholan Cacceleur.

The Countage Wingenfieln.

The Siour Aistageden van Wei.

The Sieur Cafear Richart van Handebeeghe. The Sieur Fohan vander Lacn.

Plymouth, February 4. Here it arrived the Arford Figure, Saptath What Commander from the Eastrace and manin few days proceed for the Downer; several Merchant men are at present here in Port, 25 Well inward as outward bound.

Deale, February 5. Last night arrived here Captain Beach in the Hampshire Exigus from the Streights having on board him, about twenty English slaves, redeemed since the Peace with Argiers; he reports, he left Sir Edmard Spragge at Port Mahon, intending to follow in three weeks at farthest; that ph board of him and other Merchant men, were the rest of the Slaves fedeemed from Argiers.

Portsmouth, February 6. The Durch men of War Which were in this Road, are sayled for Zealand, to which Ptovince they belong solice Merchant meti are likewise proceeded on their respective voyages.

Whitehall, January J. By Letters from Captain Beach on board the Hampshire Erigar in the Downs, we have the confirmation of his being fortime finde engaged, as hath been formerly faid, with two Turks Men of War in the Medisceranean, with this faither advice, That he had fince heard by Captain Piburne who came from Argiers, that the biggest of those Men of War had got home with much difficulty, having received 17 shot between wind and water ; and very much torn, with the loss of 25 men, besides so wounded: That the toth be December's being on his way to Port Mahon, he came up with the White Horfe ha surgerine of 36 Guns, having with her an English Prize the William and Themas, (taken about nine days before the conclusion of the Peate) Thomas Forman Mafter; the Turks Commander, after figns made of peace, came on board. Captain Beach, and at his defire likewise fent for the English Master and others of his Skips Compamy, who declaring they were taken before the Peace af Aforesaid, were by Captain Beach, at the in-lance of the Argiers Captain, who demanded them, in pursuance of the faid Peace, returned accordingly fe him.

That the The artised at Fort Milon, where he found the day of the failed themes again the 22 homeward? That the 4 instance, in the hight, a sally Man of War came up with him; with an interior to lay them on Bord, thinking them to be some small Vestel? but coming nearer, and pertecting his error, he fired a velley of small short into Captain Beachs killing one of his men, and wounding an other, and immedially sprang his Luft, the Prigat returned him all the Gans she could, both great and small. The wolld, the sally Man, there being but little wind, put out his Oats, and after six hours chace, with much difficulty escaped by reafon the Frigat wanted wind to pursue her.

Posto, February 7. Yesterday Sir George Downing, His Majesties late Ambasiador at the Hague, to the States General of the United Provinces, artived here, and this day after his private Examination by fome of the Lords of the Council, and and account thereof given to His Majesty, he was byofflis Majesties Warrant, sent Priloner to the Trader; for not having obeyed the Orders sent to bin.

Advertisementi

All persons in England, Wales, and Berwick, who over any Renetin arrear, or by advance by their Wine-Licenses, and hereby directed southwith so pay the same (by themselves, Attorneys or Friends, that shall come to Town this Candisms Term, into his Majestica Office for Graming Wine Licenses, in Davidson-Tard, London, else they will be forthwish Arrested for the fame.