The London Gazette.

Bubliched by Authozity.

From Saturday September 3. to Cuciday September 6. 1726.

Lisbon, August 17, N.S.

ESIDES the Termeer a Dutch Man of War which entred this Harbour on the 24th paft, two others arrived on the 30th pait, and on the 7th Inftant, from Holland. The first of these, with the Termeer, proceeded, the fame Day that the came in, from hence to joyn Vide-Admiral Somelfdyck's Squadron in the Mediterranean ; as did the latter on the 13th Inftant. Two Ships more are fhortly expected from the Texel, as a further Reinforce-ment to this Squadron. His Britannick Majefty's Ship the Lyme Galley, commanded by the Right Honourable the Lord Vere Beauclerc, came into this River on the 6th Inftant, and put to Sea again the 10th for Gibraltar. A British Mer-chant Ship arrived Yesterday from Leghorn, with feveral Portuguese Paffengers on board ; and as they have depofed upon Oath, that there is no infectious Diftemper in that Ciry, the Secretary of State this Day affured the Britifh Conful here, that Ships bound from that Port hither, fhould not be obliged to perform Quarantain here. Two Men of War are fitted out here for the Coast of Brazil, as Guard Ships, and ten Merchant Ships deeply laden are get-ting ready to go under their Convoy; and they will fail by the Beginning of next Month. Lisbow, Aug. 31, N.S. Laft Week a French Ship arrived here from Algiers, having on board Two hundred and fourteen Portuguese Slaves who had been lately redeemed from the Moors. The King of Portugal has been pleafed to create the Conde Penniguao, Son to the Marquefs d'Abrantes, Marqueis de Fontes; and to confer the Title of Conde on the Son of the Conde d'Unhao: The Marquefs de Valenza has the Diftinc-tion of Sobrinho added to his Titles, on Ac-count of his being related to the Royal Family.

Lisbon, Aug. 31, N. S. Sir John Jennings with the Squadron of His Britannick Majefty's Ships of War under his Command arrived here on the 25th Inftant. The fame Day he fent Collonel Difney to acquaint Brigadier Dor-mer, the Britilh Envoy Extraordinary, with his putting into this Port to water and get fome Refreshments; and that having made the Royal Salute to the Fort, he had been answered Gun for Gun. Immediately the Envoy made a Visit to the Secretary of State, who the next Morning fent him Word that the King of Portugal would be glad to fee Sir John Jennings, and accordingly had appointed an Audience that Evening. Sir John dined with the Envoy that Day, and went with him to the Audience at tended by the Chief Officers under his Command. After the Admiral had made his Compliment, the Envoy took that Occasion to congratulate the King upon the Recovery of the Prince of Brazil who had fome Days before been much indifpofed. His Portuguese Majesty was graindifposed. His Portuguele Majeny was since indifposed. His Portuguele Majeny was greaturn to both the Compliments, adding he had given Orders that the Admiral should be furnifhed with every thing he wanted. The Envoy then prefented the feveral Officers to his Portuguese Majesty, who received them in the most gracious Manner. Sir John Jennings intends to put again to Sea To-morrow.

Whitehall, Sept. 3, 1726. Whereas on Friday the Eighth Day of July last, about Eleven a-Clock at Night, there came on Wake-field Lawn, in His Majest's Forest of Whistlewood, in the County of Northampton, about Eighteen Men, most of them on Horseback, one of them on a grey Hun-ting-like H-ofe, with a very long switch Tail, many of them having Fire-Arms and other Weapons of fe-areal Series with these four Buses of Computed on veral Sorts, with three or four Brace of Greybounds or Running Dogs, one of which being a dark brindled Dog or Bitch with a cut Tail, was fast by the Keepers; and whereas the faid Perfons did kill and carry away feveral of His Majefly's Deer, and beat two of the Keepers in a most barbarous and cruel Manner, His Majesly, for the better Discovery of the Persons guilty of