Madrid, October 14, N. S.

N the 7th Instant Count Konigseck came to Town from Balfain, to fee his Coaches and Equipages, which are lately arrived from Vienna, for the Publick Entry he intends to make affoon as their Catholick Majesties shall come to Town: He supped the Evening he was here at the Duke of Liria's, and on the 10th returned back to Ballain. The Infant of Portugal is gone a Pilgrimage to Alba near Salamanca, to pay fome Worship to the Relicks of Sta Theresa: It is said he will soon be made a Cardinal. Don Joseph Patino is very busy in finding out Ways and Means for raising Money for the present E-mergencies, and for the Payment of the Army, and for fending more Subfidies to the Emperour; for all which Purposes he is making Propositions, and offers a high Interest to the monied Men here to advance Money; but the Securities for Repayment being precarious, and Money very scarce, his Propositions meet with many Difficulties. His Catholick Majesty has declared, that he will remove to the Escurial on the 21st Instant, and necessary Orders have been given for that Purpose. Letters from Cadiz of the 8th Instant, advise, that the Intendant of Marine had demanded Sixty six thousand Pieces of Eight from the Commerce there, for desirange as the Court pretends the Charge of two Men of War, which are to go to cruise against the Interlopers upon the Coast's of Cartagena in the Room of the Count Claving who is no com-Room of the Count Clavijo, who is to come home; which the faid Commerce have engaged to maintain for preventing the Contraband Trade upon those Coasts; That having granted the faid Sum, and not having Money in Cash, they agreed to raise it upon every particular Trader's paying a certain Sum in Proportion to the Goods he ship'd aboard the Flota and Galleons, to be reimbursed upon their Arrival: And that the Commerce at Seville, upon a late Application made to them by the Court for advancing Two Hundred Thousand Pieces of Eight, have not been able to furnish more than Forty Thousand.

Copenbagen, Off. 19. We have this Evening received an Account that his Britannick Majesty's Squadron under the Command of Sir Charles Wager, together with the Danish Squadron, are come to Anchor in Drago Bay about two Leagues from hence.

Admiralty-Office, Off. 25. A Letter from Sir John Jennings dated from on board the Union off the Culver Cliffs Oct. 23, advises, That he had been obliged by a strong Northerly Wind to anchor there the 22d in the Morning, in 24 Days from Lisbon, and was getting under Sail with the Berwick, Royal Oak, Kent, and Lenox, to turn it to Snithead. to turn it to Spithead.

Whitchall, Offob + 25.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Mr. Baron Price to be one of the Judges of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, in the Room of Mr. Justice Dormer deceased.

Goldsmiths Hall, Oct. 19, 1726.

The Company of Goldmiths, London, give Notices-That notwithstanding the several Advertisements by them published in the Gazette and other publick Pa-pers, in order to prevent the working and selling of Plate that is not mark'd with the Marks appointed by Law ; that is not mark'd with the Marks appointed by Law; There hath lately been confiderable Quantities of wrought Plate fold and exported beyond the Seas which may justly be suffected to be of a coarser Allay than the Standard, not being mark'd as aforefaid, though capable of bearing the same, (and yet Affidavit was made that the same were so marked) in Contempt of the known Laws, to the great Prejudice of the fair and konest Trader, the destructions the Publick of the Luties by the Drawback, and to the great Dibonour of the Nation in Drawback, and to the great Dishonour of the Nation in general, when such Plate spall be found of a coarser Allay in foreign Parts, which must necessivity tend to the Ruin of so noble a Manusacture.

The said Company do therefore again caution all Perfons what sever not to buy any Gold or Silver Wares that are capable of bearing the Mark, unless stamps with one or more of the Marks following, viz. The Figure of a Woman called Britannia, and the Lyon's Head erased, on new Sterling Silver; the Lyon passant and the Leopard's Head crown'd, on old Sterling Silver, and the said last two Marks on Gold Wares; and hdvife all Buyers strictly to inspect the larger Plate, and fee that the Marks are not Jeder'd thereto or counterfeited, both which are notorious Frauds, and difficult to discover.

By Order of the Court of Affiftants of the Said Company.
