St. James's, February 24.

THE following humble Address of the Justices of the Peace and other principal Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Westminster, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Montagu, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, William Cowper, Esq; Chairman of the Sessions, and several others of the Justices of the Peace for the said City and Liberty, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex and Custos Rotulorum of the same, and of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, in their General Quarter Session assembled, this Sixteenth Day of February, in the Thirteenth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, together with the principal Inhabitants of the said City and Liberty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do from a thorough and most grateful Sense of our Happiness and Security under your most gracious Government and wise Administration, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Wishes for the long Continuance of them, and to joyn with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects in expressing our just Indignation and Repentment at the Design set on Foot and carrying on by some Powers of Europe, to the Destruction of the Religion, Laws, Liberties and Trade of this Nation, in Favour of an abjured contemptible Pretender, educated in the School of Rome, and in Principles the most compleatly fitted for the Propagation of Religious and Civil Slavery.

But we do depend that these Designs will (under God) be effectually disappointed by your Majesty's Prudence, and by the vigorous Measures taken to defeat them.

And that they will meet with the Fate due to all Counsels founded on the Violation of National Faith and the most solemn Treaties, and this by Powers under the highest Obligations to your Majesty, and these Nations.

Your Majesty's unwearied Labours, and the consummate Wisdom of your Measures for the preserving and continuing to us and our Posterity the Security of those invaluable Blessings which have so many Ages made Great Britain happy in the Enjoyment of true Liberty, and set it at the Head of the Counsels of Europe, do demand of us and all your Subjects the most unreserved Tenders of our Zeal and Duty to your Majesty on this Occasion; and we do accordingly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, with one Heart and Mind, that we are most ready and determined, not only to exert our utmost Care and Diligence in preserving the Peace within the Limits of the

(Price Two Pence.)

Commission with which your Majesty has been pleased to honour us the said Justices, but ever at the Hazard of all that is near and dear to us, to avow and defend your Majesty's lawful and rightful Title to the Crown of these Realms, and the Dominions thereto belonging, which we regard as the only Means of preserving our Civil and Religious Rights that must inseparably depend upon the Continuance of the Protestant Succession, of which King William the Third of Glorious and Immortal Memory (our great Deliverer from Popish Tyranny and Arbitrary Power) was the happy Instrument in God's Hand.

And may there never be wanting a Prince of your Majesty's Royal Line to perpetuate to these Nations the Blessings we enjoy by that Settlement now so firmly established in your Majesty's illustrious Houle.

The following humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants of the Tower-Hamlets, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Nathanael Hodges and Colonel Williamfon, introduced by the Right Honourable Henry Lord Viscount Lonsdale, Constable of His Majesty's Tower of London, and Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the Tower-Hamlets and Liberty thereof. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and then His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on the above-named Colonel Nathanael Hodges, Colonel of the Second Regiment of the Tower-Hamlets.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants of the Tower-Hamlets.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal faithful and affectionate Subjects the Deputy-Lieutenants of your Majesty's Tower-Hamlets, cannot but look back with the utmost Pleasure and Gratitude on the Ease and Security we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most mild just and prudent Reign, and at the same time be surprized and fired with Indignation; that any neighbouring Powers should vainly imagine, that Britons thus made happy by your Majesty, should tamely suffer an abjured bigotted Popish Pretender and Imposter to invade them, or that we should submit our Consciences to a barbarous Spanish Inquisition, exchange our Liberty for their Slavery, or yield up our Property to be the Plunder of our Enemies: No, we are too sensible of the inestimable Blessings we possess under your Majesty's most gracious Administration, not to exert our whole Strength for the Support of your Majesty's Royal Person and Family; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall think no Taxes too heavy which shall be found necessary to promote your Majesty's Happiness and the Welfare of your Subjects, and that we will cheerfully do all that in us lies to assist your Majesty for the Preservation of Gibraltar and Port Mahon, and that the Trade from Ostend to both the Indies (so ungratefully and so contrary to solemn Treaties carried on) may be entirely abolished.

And we give your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for the great Care you have taken of your Peoples Welfare in forming powerful Alliances, and for sending your Fleets so seasonably to the Ports of your (justly to be suspected) Enemies, by which Means their pernicious Schemes have hitherto turn'd to their own just Ridicule and Confusion. May God always defeat the like Projects form'd against your Majesty and the Happiness of your People; may your Reign be long and prosperous over us: may your Royal Line and the Protestant Religion never have an End in these your Majesty's Dominions; and may Liberty, Trade and Virtue, ever flourish among all your Majesty's faithful Subjects. These are the sincere Wishes of your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, and obedient Deputy-Lieutenants.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants, and other the principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Tiverton in the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Yonge Recorder of that Borough, and Arthur Arlott and George Deane, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants, and other the principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Tiverton in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects being truly sensible of the tender Care your Majesty has always had for the Welfare and Prosperity of all, even the meanest of your People, beg Leave to return your Majesty our unfeign'd Thanks for the peculiar regard you have at this Juncture shewn for preserving the Trade and Commerce of these Kingdoms, in which we are in a particular Manner concerned.

It is with great Resentment we have seen the unjust Infringements attempted to be made upon our Rights and Commerce, by a Prince who ought in another Manner to have expressed his Gratitude to this Nation, and whose Attempts not only supported by another in Breach of the most solemn Treaties, but likewise a peremptory Demand made for the delivering up Gibraltar, so valuable a Part of your Majesty's just and rightful Possessions, contrary to the very Engagements of that Prince himself.

But what raises our highest Indignation, is, when we consider the base Designs that have been formed by these ambitious Powers against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, by attempting to place on the Throne of these Realms a Popish Pretender, so frequently abjured, and so sincerely despised and abhorred by all your Majesty's true Protestant Subjects.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous for averting the Dangers with which we are threatned, and continuing the valuable Blessings we enjoy, and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal House to transmit those Blessings to Posterity, is not only our constant Prayer, but we are determin'd cheerfully to contribute our small Portion to enable your Majesty to support the Dignity of your Crown, assert your Empire of the Seas, and resent the Insults and Indignities offer'd to this injured Nation.

We are,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most faithful Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by John Plumtre and George Gregory, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Nottingham and of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham in Common-Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE think ourselves extremely happy under your Majesty's wife and gracious Government and Administration, and reverse that Providence which set your Majesty on the Throne of this Kingdom, whose vigilant Care to defend us from having our Liberties and Properties invaded and destroyed, to preserve the Trade and Credit of the Nation, and the Blessings of Peace and Plenty, calls for our most grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty.

And therefore we cannot but with the warmest Zeal express our utmost Resentment at the Designs contriv'd and carried on by Spain and Germany to disturb your Majesty's happy Reign over us, by attempting to place a Popish Pretender on the Throne, by peremptorily demanding the giving up your Dominions in Spain, and by endeavouring to establish a Trade to the Indies from the Austrian Netherlands, contrary to the most solemn Treaties, and to the very great Prejudice of the Trade of this Nation, and by offering other high Indignities to your Majesty.

It is with Pleasure we can reflect how industriously vigilant your Majesty (assisted by a wise and able Ministry) has been to obviate every Appearance of Danger to your People, from what Quarter soever, by fitting out your Royal Fleets with unparallel'd Expedition; and sending them to distant Regions, carrying a double Aspect, not malign to any, not to confound and destroy, but to preserve and save; joyful and benign to all true Lovers of the Peace of Mankind, but formidable to all Disturbers thereof.

We no sooner perceived the Dangers we were in, than we saw likewise through your Majesty's preventive Judgment and well-concerted Counsels, Means ready to repel them; which by the Blessings of Heaven on those Means, we trust will have the desired Effects.

It is with the utmost Satisfaction we see the hearty Resolves of your faithful Parliament, by which your Enemies, if not wholly blind and infatuated, may be convinced of the Spirit and Temper of the British Nation.

Those Alliances your Majesty has upon so just Grounds formed with several Powers in Europe, the Unanimity of your Parliament, the Care that has been taken to discharge the publick Debts, the prudent Disposal of your Fleets and Armies; and above all, your Majesty's Sagacity in discovering the pernicious Designs of your Enemies, and the unwearied Endeavours of your Majesty and the Ministry to disappoint them, give us abundant Pleasure and Satisfaction; and from thence we persuade ourselves, that the Storms that have been gathering will soon vanish, or else be dispersed by the Force of your Majesty's Arms; and finally tend to the Honour of this Nation, and your Majesty's Glory, in defeating the haughty Projects of ambitious Princes, whom no Friendships, no Treaties, no Sense of Honour, could keep within the Bounds of Justice and Reason.

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty upon this Occasion; of our steady and dutiful Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, and your illustrious House, and of the just Sense we have of your Goodness to your People; and that we are ready and willing to sacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us in supporting your Majesty and the present happy Establishment; beseeching the Divine Goodness to bless your Majesty with a long happy and prosperous Reign over us, and with Success in all your Enterprises; that you may continue the Arbitrer of Power in Europe, and the Preserver of our Civil and Religious Rights, (which we esteem securely reposed in your Royal Hands.) These, most gracious Sovereign, are the ardent and sincere Wishes of us,

Your most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our common Seal the 15th Day of February, 1726.

Madrid, Feb. 17, N. S. Count Conigleck is still indisposed of the Gout, so that he has not been able to go to the Pardo to have his usual Audiences of their Catholick Majesties; nor is his Courier so long expected from Vienna arrived yet; But the Marquess de la Paz came from the Pardo twice last Week to see him. The last Post from Paris brought His Britannick Majesty's Speech to his Parliament, with the vigorous Resolutions of both Houses to support the Measures his Majesty has entred into, for the Defence of his Dominions and the Trade of his Subjects, and to furnish the Supplies which shall be requisite for that Purpose: Which has very much dejected the Jacobite Party. The Duke of Liria, who has been appointed Ambassadour to the Czarina, has received the Remainder of the Sum granted him for the Expence of his Journey, and is to set out for Petersbourg in 10 or 12 Days, by the Way of Italy and Vienna. Letters from the Camp before Gibraltar of the 9th Instant relate, that the bad Weather and continual Rains had made it impossible to bring up the Battering Pieces of Brass Cannon which lay upon the Road from Cadiz, and had also occasioned dangerous Sickneses among the Troops, of which many Men daily dye; and that great Numbers continued to desert, several of which had fled into Gibraltar, where the Governour not thinking it convenient to keep them, had sent them on board the Men of War: And that it was not known what Day the Trenches would be opened. Letters from Cadiz of the 11th Instant advise, that an English Vessel came in there that Day, the Master of which brought an Account, that he met Sir Charles Wager with the Squadron under his Command off Cape St. Vincent, with a fair Wind making for the Streights: And Letters from Gibraltar, which came in this Morning advise, that Nine Men of War, one of which carried a Flag, were coming into that Bay; and it was not doubted they were Sir Charles Wager's Squadron. Letters from Malaga of the 11th Instant relate, that the Duke of Wharton with his Lady was arrived there; that the Magistrates had provided a House for them; and it was said he would leave his Family there, and go himself as a Volunteer to the Spanish Camp. That on the 8th Instant a French Ship arrived at Malaga from Barcelona, with Cannon Ball and other Military Stores, which are to be sent in small Imbarkations to Algeziras; that the said French Ship brought also 50 Gunners, as had a Spanish Ship 50 more, who all set out on the 9th by Land for the Camp: And that 50 Miners who came in another Spanish Vessel from Barcelona, proceeded by Sea for the Spanish Camp.

Whitehall, Februar; 23.

By Letters from Vice-Admiral Hoher, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Squadron in the West Indies, dated from Jamaica the 14th of December last, we have an Account, that by reason of the great Mortality and Sicknes on board the Ships, they had been obliged to repair to that Island, where the Sick Men had been put on Shore; but by the Vigilance and Care of the Vice-Admiral, seconded by the hearty and zealous Assistance of the President and Council, the Squadron was so far recruited, that he would put to Sea again with the greatest Part of it in six or seven Days.

Navy-Office, Feb. 14, 1726.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of January 1725, to the 31st of December last, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf: These are to give Notice, that the said Payments will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, on Monday the 6th of March next for the Captains, Tuesday the 7th for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 8th for the Masters: That all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavits required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment whatsoever, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates (if they have not done it already) that they have subscribed the Test, and taken the Oaths required by the late Act of Parliament; and in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
