St. James's, March 7.

THE following humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgeses, High-Steward, Under-Steward, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of His Majesty's Borough of New-Windsor, in the County of Berks, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Inchiquin, one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgeses, High-Steward, Under-Steward, Gentlemen; and other the Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough of New-Windsor in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

IN the midst of the greatest Calm and Security at Home that any People are capable of enjoying, happy in the best and most humane of Princes, the purest Religion, and the fullest Possession of Liberty and Property, (Plants that thrive and flourish only in a Protestant Soil,) we on a sudden see a Storm gathering from Abroad that threatens us with the Destruction of all these Blessings at once, and to force upon us in Exchange a bigotted Popish Pretender, whom we neither Love nor Fear, and an Arbitrary absolute Government, the very worst of human Calamities that can possibly happen to this free Nation.

We find with Indignation your most Sacred Majesty, together with the British Honour and Commerce, insulted (in Breach of the most solemn Treaties) by a Prince whom we lately saw in this Place under very different Circumstances, and who owes it to the British Generosity and Valour that either himself or his Family are in a Condition at this Time to insult them or any other Nation.

But we are still more surprized to hear of the same injurious Treatment from another Prince who is so ill informed of the true Affections and real Interest of the People of Great-Britain, as to dream of succeeding in an Invasion of your Majesty's Kingdoms in favour of the desperate Fortunes of the baffled Pretender and his perjured Adherents, at the same Time forgetting (we presume) that he himself has not been able to defend or preserve his own Dominions.

Under these Provocations, if your Majesty, in Conjunction with your high Allies, shall be compelled to draw your Sword in the Defence of our Religion, our Laws, and all those Advantages of Commerce, which alone have distinguished this happy Island from the neighbouring World, as the Seat of Liberty, Plenty, and Ease; we have the strongest Reasons to promise ourselves and our Fellow-Subjects such an Issue of so necessary a War, as may be glorious to your Majesty's Arms in the present, and productive of the Blessings of Peace to succeeding Generations.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over us; and that this Nation may always remain and be under the gracious Protection and Government of your sacred Majesty and your Royal Descendants to all Ages, are the daily Prayers of,

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Bishop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and of the Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter, has been presented to His Majesty by Dr. Gilbert Dean of Exeter, in the

Abc

(Price Two Pence.)

Absence of the Lord Bishop of that Diocese, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Bishop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and of the Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter, seeing not only the Commerce of your Kingdoms at once assaulted and undermined, but an Invasion of England agreed upon to inthroned the Enemy of our Religion; unless we should forget the Situation and particular Interests of these Countries, cannot be slow to acknowledge and implore the Continuance of your Majesty's Royal Cares in our Favour, and profess our chearful Dependence, under the Divine Aid, on your known Wisdom and Magnanimity.

Permit us at the same Time, most gracious Sovereign, to lay at your Feet, and publish to all the World this Testimony and Engagement of our Resolution, to support in our Stations the Measures taken by your Majesty for the necessary Defence of Church and State; their present Happiness and all their Interests are inseparably united with those of your Majesty and Royal Family; and our Conviction of that, makes our Zeal and Fidelity immovably the same for both. Religion, which inforces these Sentiments, obliges us also to propagate and fix them amongst a loyal and brave People.

And that it may please Almighty God to inspire all your Subjects with a full Sense of the Happiness He has given them under your Government, and the Duty thence resulting both to your Majesty and themselves, of a zealous and inviolable Union in your Service; and that he would crown your Counsels and Arms with the Success of reassuring the precious Rights of your People, Religious and Civil; a Success your Majesty so paternally, so christianly prefers to all the Glories of Conquest.

These are our fervent Prayers, and from the Conduct of Affairs our just Hopes, and they shall be sincerely followed with suitable Endeavours.

Madrid, Feb. 24, N. S. Our last Letters from the Camp before Gibraltar, are of the 19th Instant, and advise, that the Retardment of the March of the Artillery, occasioned by the Impracticableness of the Roads from the continual Rains fallen of late in those Parts, had obliged the Spaniards to suspend the opening of the Trenches: But that two or three Days before, the Weather having changed and become fair, it was expected that in five or six Days more so many Pieces of the said Artillery might be brought up, as would suffice for their first Batteries; which was the only thing wanting for the opening of the Trenches, and what M. de Verboom, in Opposition to the Importunity of the Conde de las Torres, positively insisted upon, before any other Operation should be undertaken. All the Letters from the said Camp agree, that the Army is already weakened near a fourth Part, by Sickness and Desertion. His Catholick Majesty has been pleased to appoint Don Geronimo de Uzfariz to be Secretary of the Council of Finances, and Don Manos Montoto (who was one of the Duke de Ripperda's chief Clerks) to be Secretary of the Revenue called Millones. His Catholick Majesty has also granted to Don Guillermo Eon (the Director for the Asiento de Negros, who lately came from London) the Title and Rank of Counsellour for the Indies, with a Pension of Six Hundred Pistoles a Year. To-Morrow Night, their Catholick Majesties will remove from the Pardo to the Palace here, and the Day following will go to reside for some Weeks at the Buen-Retiro. It is advised from St. Andero, that they continue there with all possible Expedition the building of three Seventy Gun Ships, one of a Hundred and Sixteen Guns, and two Bomb-Vessels, which they expect will be ready to be launched by the End of April next: That a vast Quantity of Timber is daily brought thither upon Wheel-Carriages from the Mountains, the greatest Part of which is to be shipped off for Cadiz, where Ships are to be built, and the rest is to remain at St. Andero for the same Purpose: That the Rosario, a Frigate of 50 Guns lately built, commanded by Captain Baltazar Sherlock, and the St. Francis, another new-built Ship of the same Force, commanded by Captain Gaspar Rue, are completing their Men from what People they can gather upon that Coast and from Galicia. Letters from Malaga of the 18th Instant relate, that two Vessels were arrived there from Barcelona laden with Cannon-Ball for the Camp: And that the Duke of Wharton, with his Lady and Family, was to set out the Day following for the Spanish Camp.

Cadiz, Feb. 18, N. S. A Person who came hither Yesterday from the Spanish Camp, brought an Account, that Sir Charles Wager with his Squadron came into the Bay of Gibraltar the 13th Instant: This Person confirms, as indeed do all the Letters from that Camp, the great Sickness in the Spanish Army and Desertion from it: That besides the Hardships they suffer from the Severity of the Weather, they are in want of Provisions: That seven of the Cannon which went by Land from hence, were got to the Camp; and the rest he saw upon the Road

Road at a great Distance from thence, sunk into the Mire; so that till the Ways become better, it will be impossible for them to proceed any further. The St. Antonio, a new built Ship, came in here a few Days ago from St. Andero; she is of the same Dimensions as another new Ship called the St. Carlos, which is likewise here and carries 68 Guns; but as the Guns of the latter were thought too much crowded, the St. Antonio is made with Ports for only 56. Here are also two other Ships of War of 60 Guns each, one of 50, two of 30, two of 26, and one of 24: And though their Expedition to Gibraltar seems to be no longer thought of, our new Intendant is very busy in compleating their several Equipages, which are very bad, consisting of Peasants and Country-People, who not being used to Sea, every Day fall Sick, and are brought to the Hospital. The Intendant has therefore sent to Buelva, Ayamonte, and the other Rivers hereabouts, for a Supply of Boatmen; who were registred a few Months ago for this Purpose.

Paris, March 7, N. S. Yesterday Morning arrived here from England, his Excellency Horatio Walpole, Esq; Ambassadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Britannick Majesty to the most Christian King.

This is to give Notice, That the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to appoint Money to pay all the Arrears due to the Pensioners belonging to the Chest at Chatham to Lady-Day 1727; and that the said Pay will begin on Tuesday the 11th of April 1727, at the Hill-House in Chatham.

General Post-Office, London, March 4, 1726.

This is to give Notice to all Persons who may have Occasion to write to the Northern Parts of Portugal, that at present a Stop being put to the Corunna Packet Boats, those Letters will be sent every Tuesday Night by the Lisbon Mail.
