St. James's, March 11.

THE following humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, has been presented to His Majesty by Mr. Joseph Burroughs, accompanied by several of his Brethren, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Westminster.

May it please your Majesty,

With Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude for the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's wise and gracious Government, we beg Leave to express our most hearty Concurrence with the rest of your loyal Subjects, in a just Concern and Repentment at the Attempts of some Foreign Powers, to violate, at once, the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, and the most valuable Interests of your People. Not content with a Design to impoverish a rich and flourishing Nation, by turning the Stream of Commerce into another Channel, or with the Demand of Places essential to the Security of our Trade, acquired in a just War, and ascertained to us by solemn Treaties, they would add the worst of Mischiefs, the Imposition of a Popish Pretender.

This last Insult, above all others, raises our Indignation. If ever God, for our Sins, should suffer that vile Project to take Effect, it must intirely reverse all the distinguishing Advantages procured to these Kingdoms by the Glorious Revolution, and since farther secured with the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure; and deprive late Posterity of all the Happiness contrived for them by the wise Counsels of King William, of Immortal Memory. It must subvert our Fundamental Laws, which secure the Right of your Majesty and of our Protestant Descendants to reign over Britain, as firmly as they secure to British Subjects their private Rights. It must therefore inevitably involve us in Confusion and Ruin: And not affect Britons alone, but the Liberties of Europe, and the Protestant Interest in general; for we are persuaded, the Conviction is growing Universal, that neither the one nor the other of these can subsist without the Protestant Succession.

Tho' Events are out of all humane Reach, yet we cannot but hope, from the watchful Care of that kind Providence which hath so often been exerted in our Favour, from the Justice of the Cause in which we are engaged, from the wise Precautions already taken by your Majesty, from the Fidelity and Steadiness of your Counsels, from the Zeal of your Parliament, and from your great and extensive Alliances, That such pernicious Designs, instead of being attended with Success, will be made to issue in the firmer Establishment of your Majesty's Throne, and the Tranquillity of your People.

For this we offer up our hearty Prayers to the King of Kings: And we shall not cease to use our best Endeavours to recommend all dutiful and chearful Subjection to your righteous Government. And while we are repeating the Assurance of our inviolable Adherence to your Majesty and your Royal House, we believe we speak the Sense of all who attend our Ministrations, who are zealously devoted by by Principle and Affection, as well as by Interest, to your Person and Family.

May your Majesty, secure of transmitting your Crown and Glory to your Royal Progeny, and Happy in seeing the confirm'd Health and Prosperity of every Branch of your Family, long live the Arbitrator of Europe; the Patron of the Oppressed every where; and the Common Father of Protestants: And may your Self enjoy, for many Years in Peace, the bleis'd Consequences of all your Royal Cares: Reigning over a People duly sensible of their own Felicity; more Reformed from publick and threatening Vices; and more united than ever, in Piety to God, in Loyalty to their Prince, in Liberty to serve their Country, and in mutual Affection one to another.

Signed in the Name, and by the Direction of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in the Cities of London and Westminster, the 9th of March 1726, by Joseph Burroughs.

To which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address. This seasonable Instance of your Zeal for my Person and Government, cannot but be very acceptable to me. You may depend on my constant Protection.

His Majesty was pleas'd to receive them very graciously, and they all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The following humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by Gabriel Roberts and Thomas Gibbon, Esqrs, their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hertford, Custos Rotulorum of the County of Wilts. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to return your Majesty our unfeign'd Thanks for the timely, wise and just Measures your Majesty has taken to secure to your Subjects their Possessions abroad, to support their Trade against all Encroachments, and to defeat the wicked Designs against our present happy Establishment in your Majesty's Line.

When the Peace of Europe is threaten'd, Great Britain cannot sit still indolent and inactive, and neglect the Means that Providence has put into her Hands to repel and resent every unjust Attempt against her.

The vigorous Resolutions of your Parliament have fill'd the Hearts of this Corporation with the utmost Joy and Satisfaction; and we are firmly perswaded, from your Majesty's indefatigable Care, from the prudent Disposition of your Fleets abroad, and of your Troops at home, that though neither the most solemn Treaties, Faith nor Gratitude can bind the two aspiring Princes that seek to disturb the Peace of Europe, yet your Majesty, by the Blessing of God, can check the lawless Ambition of the one, and the unjust Designs of the other: And we do hereby heartily and cheerfully promise for our Part, that we will to the utmost of our Power support your Majesty against the Pretender and all your Enemies both at home and abroad, and hope they will soon be convinc'd, that your Protestant Subjects defy the open Menaces, as well as the dark and perfidious Practices of such Powers as shall at any time dare to invade our Religious or Civil Rights and Properties.

Given under our common Seal in the Council-Chamber in the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 1st Day of March, in the 13th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Citizens of the ancient City of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Richard Grosvenour, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County Palatine of Chester. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Chester.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts truly sensible of the many Blessings we have enjoy'd under your most wise and glorious Administration.

As Trade is both the Ornament and Support of Great Britain, every Breach into the Fences and Privileges wherewith that is guarded, has always been looked upon as the highest of all Injuries to this Nation.

And since we see Powers abroad (however opposite in their Views) uniting themselves in Defiance of the most solemn Treaties: When we see our most valuable Branches of Trade usurp'd, our Possessions attacked, and our present happy Establishment in the Protestant Line threaten'd with an Invasion, even even without Provocation, and against the Force of the highest Obligations, we cannot too gratefully acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care of your People, by those timely Precautions that have been taken, which have hitherto put a Stop to the dangerous Designs of your Enemies.

It is with the utmost Indignation and Regretment, that we behold foreign Princes setting up secret Alliances to attempt an Invasion upon your Majesty's Kingdoms in favour of a Popish Pretender ; but though Schemes of this dangerous Nature are concerted abroad, they must be strangely infatuated to imagine, that the Spirit of the English Nation is sunk so low, as tamely to submit to such Ufurpations, and to have so little Regard either for their Religion or their Liberty, as to exchange both for Superstition and Slavery.

We therefore beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we in our several Capacities will upon all Occasions exert ourselves with the utmost Vigour and Resolution in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and in Support of that excellent Constitution which is happily established amongst us both in Church and State.

The following humble Address of the Alderman, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Landholders, and Commoners of the ancient Borough of Malmsbury, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll, High-Steward of the said Borough. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Alderman, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Landholders and Commoners of the ancient Borough of Malmsbury, in the County of Wilts.

IT is with greatest Gratitude imaginable we approach your Sacred Majesty with this Address of Duty and Thanks for the Peace and Plenty we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign, and for the most prudent Methods which have been taken to continue those inestimable Blessings to us and our Posterity ; the early and seasonable Discovery of the Designs of our Enemies ; your sending your Fleets to distant Parts of the World ; providing Gibraltar and Port-Mahon with all Necessaries for their Defence ; and your Majesty's vigorous Resolution to part with nothing which of Right belongs to the Trade, Safety, and Honour of these Kingdoms, are Instances of your Majesty's most consummate Wisdom, and the Love and Regard you have for the Welfare of your People. We will in Return behave ourselves as most dutiful Subjects, having the highest Obligations to the best of Princes : We will in our several Stations be industrious in promoting the Manufactures and Trade of our Country ; and upon all Occasions we will Part with our Fortunes, and lay down our Lives for the Defence of your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

The following humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Hales and Francis Whitworth, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE humbly crave Leave, among the rest of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, who during your happy Reign, have also shared those reiterated Blessings through Means of your allwise and paternal Care, and thereby justly raised in us so deep a Sense of Gratitude, that we esteem it our indispensable Duty to Address your Majesty on this present Juncture of Affairs, at a Time when the perfidious Violation of the most solemn Treaties Abroad never appeared more barefac'd, nor when Love and Loyalty ever can look better at Home ; when the best of Sovereigns must be threatned with fresh Troubles, the most beneficial Part of our Trade aimed at, and whose infatuated Schemes, attended with Success, would dart us into so great a pitch of Ruin, and center in the total Subversion of the best of Religions, Laws, and Liberties, and place over us the unhappy Instrument of so much Strife and Contention, (so worthless a Creature) as deserves no other Room in Paper, but to render him obnoxious to all your loving Subjects, sincerely devoted to their Prince : May therefore not only the Projects of that Impostor always prove fruitless and abortive, but all other Disturbers whatsoever of your Regal Government : May your Majesty's Forces ever ride in Triumph at Sea, and bravely win and wear the gay Laurel by Land, and let the Enemy feel the Stroke of Justice as their due Rewards, to the Joy of your own People and Dread of others : May Almighty God grant you a long Life to see your Dominions flourish in Riches, Peace and Plenty, and kindly afford us an illustrious Branch of your Royal Issue to fill the British Throne to the End of Time, shall be the Prayers of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of His Majesty's Town and Corporation of Deal, one of the Members of the Cinque Ports in the County of Kent, has been presented to His Majesty by Captain Hercules Baker, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Corporation of Deal.

YOUR Majesty's faithful Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen and Inhabitants of your Town and Corporation of Deal, always sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, humbly offer to your Majesty the sincere and thankful Expressions of their Joy, occasioned by your Majesty's particular Care and Prudence in the present Juncture of Affairs in Europe.

It is with equal Surprise and Indignation that we find Engagements formed and entered into against your Majesty and your Peoples Interest by those very Powers whom the British Nation hath put into a Capacity of being not only injurious to their Friends, but even secure from their Neighbours.

Attempts for suppressing the Trade and Rights of Great Britain, are in the Judgment of our Enemies vain and fruitless without first opening a Door to those Mischiefs by imposing a Popish Pretender on the Throne of these Protestant Kingdoms.

But we desire Leave to assure your Majesty, that the Inhabitants of this Maritime Town, who have formerly had some Share in the Honour acquired by the British Fleet, will be always ready to give your Majesty real Assurances of their Readiness to assist your Majesty with our Persons and Estates, in the just and valuable Design of protecting our Trade and Commerce, the securing the Possessions of the Crown Abroad, and the opposing all Designs and Attempts to subvert the Settlement of the Crown of these Kingdoms on your Majesty and your Royal Issue, the Pledges of our future Peace and Security.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, has been presented to His Majesty by William Lance, Esq; Mayor of the said Corporation, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly approach your Royal Presence at this critical Time, in which those formidable Combinations of Potent Princes against the Peace and Prosperity of these your Dominions, that for a great while were concealed, do openly shew themselves; and with Hearts full of Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, we beg Leave to assure you of our Detestation and Abhorrence of all the Projects and Endeavours of the Pretender and his Adherents, for placing him on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and humbly think, that a Protestant free People can never exert themselves with too much Zeal in Defence of the Protestant Settlement of the Crown in your Majesty's Family, the Basis of all our valuable Rights and Privileges.

As your Majesty's Possession of Gibraltar and Port Mahon (which are now attempted to be wrested from us,) was confirmed to this Nation after a vast Expenditure of Blood and Treasure; so we hope the Vigour of the English Nation, seconding your Majesty's wise Schemes for securing them, will have a happy Effect, that the End will be the Disappointment and Confusion of your Enemies.

The preserving our Trade in all its Branches is of the last Consequence to your People, and Infractions of Treaties, by which any Part of it has been secured to us, affect that Part of our Property, which arises from our Industry, too much to be tamely acquiesced in: And as we have Reason humbly to thank your Majesty for your Care and Vigilance, in preventing hitherto the Schemes of our Enemies taking Effect; so we intirely rely (next to the Divine Providence,) on your Majesty's Wisdom and Power, in Conjunction with your High Allies, for the re-establishing the Peace of Europe, by settling the Ballance of Power in so just a Manner, that we your Majesty People may for the future enjoy their Religion, Liberty and Trade, without Danger or Disturbance.

Madrid, March 3, N. S. On the 25th past their Catholick Majesties came from the Pardo to the Buen-Retiro, where they will remain for three Months. On the 26th this Court dispatched a Courier to Paris, in Answer to the Letters which the Duke of Bourbonville's nonville's Courier brought hither on the 23<sup>d</sup> from Vienna by the Way of Paris: By the said Courier Advice was sent of the Spanish Army's having opened the Trenches before Gibraltar on the 21st past at Night. Two Couriers more from Vienna are arrived at this Court within this last Week. On the 27th past his Excellency Mr. Stanhope, Ambassadour of the King of Great Britain, went to the Marquess de la Paz and acquainted him, that Hostilities having been begun by the Spanish Army before Gibraltar, he had taken his Resolution to leave this Court without Loss of Time, and for that Purpose desired his Catholick Majesty would please to grant him the necessary Passports for Himself, his Family, and his Equipages: Though the Marquess promised those Passports immediately, yet they have not hitherto been delivered to his Excellency: But he expects them to Morrow, and proposes to set out from hence the 5th or 6th Instant. The Duke of Liria having received at his Catholick Majesty's Treasury Eight Thousand Pistoles for his Journey, and Four Thousand Pistoles more in Advance on Account of his Appointments as Ambassadour from Spain to Muscovy, intends to be going in a few Days by the Way of Italy and Vienna. Letters from Cadiz of the 25th past advise, that the Governour, in Consequence of the Hostilities begun against Gibraltar, has detained four British Merchant Ships till he shall receive Orders from Court; but that he has not molested yet the British Merchants residing there: And that several Boats which went with Stores for the Camp, having heard the firing of the Cannon, are returned for Fear of the English Men of War. 'Tis advised from Malaga the 25th past, that an English Ship called the Dorothy, bound for London with Wine, which was the only English Ship there, as she was going to sail out of the Mole was stopt by Order of the Governour till he should hear from Court: That another English Ship called the Priscilla coming in from Amsterdam, being informed of what had happened, immediately put to Sea again, and luckily got away: That the English Consul, and some other English Merchants there, had retired into Convents for Fear of being seized: And that the Duke of Wharton was gone to the Spanish Camp. The Advices from the Spanish Army before Gibraltar are, that most of the Cannon being arrived on the 21st past, the Conde de las Torres began to open the Trenches the Night following with five Battalions, upon which the Governour sent out to him to know the Reasons of his Proceedings, but receiving no satisfactory Answer the Firing began; That the Spaniards have since lost a good Number of Men, both by the Fire from the Town and from the Ships of the British Squadron: That the Garrison had made a Sally with a Party of Grenadiers:

That the Night of the 24th past two Spanish Regiments called Antwerp and Naples, and an Irish Battalion, mistaking each other for the Enemy, fired upon one another in the Trenches; by which some Officers and a good many Men were killed: And that the Spanish Army had been considerably diminished, both by Desertion and Sickness which still continued among them to a great Degree.

Dublin, March 2. Yesterday being the Birth-Day of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment the Lords Justices upon this Occasion; and at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies, for the Entertainment of the Ladies:

Whitehall, March 9, 1726-7:

Whereas some wicked Persons have lately counterfeited Notes in Imitation of the Twenty Shilling Notes of the Bank of Scotland, and thereby imposed upon and defrauded Numbers of unwary Persons, to the great Prejudice of that Company, and of many of His Majesty's Subjects; His Majesty is graciously pleased, in order to the discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons guilty of so villainous a Forgery, to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in the said Crime, that shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted of the same.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be holden at their House in Fenchurch-street, London, on Friday the 24th of this Instant March, at Eleven in the Forenoon, the same being a Quarterly Court. And that a General Court of the said Company will be holden at the same Place on Wednesday the 3rd of April next, for the Election of 24 Directors for the Year ensuing, which will continue from Nine a-Clock in the Morning till Six in the Afternoon of the same Day, after which Time no Lists will be taken in. That the Lists of the Members of the said Company will be ready to be delivered at the said House on Thursday the 30th of this Instant March. And that the Transfer Books of the said Company will be shut up on Thursday the 16th of this Instant March; and opened again on Thursday the 13th of April next.

South-Sea-House, London, March 9, 1726-7:

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That the South-Sea Annuity Transfer Books will be shut on Thursday the 23<sup>d</sup> Instant, in order to the making out the Warrants for the Half Year's Annuity due at Lady-Day next; and that the same will be opened again on Tuesday the 25th of April next.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court to consider of a Dividend will be held at the Bank on Thursday next, the 16th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon; And also, That another General Court will be held at the Bank on Tuesday the 11th of April next, from Nine in the Forenoon to Six in the Afternoon, for the Election of a Governour;

nour and Deputy-Governour for the Year ensuing; which Election will be declared that Evening: And the said Court will be continued by Adjournment, and held at the same Place, and during the same Hours, on Wednesday the 12th of April, for the Election of Twenty Four Directors (which will be also one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the Charter.) and the Election of the Twenty Four Directors will be declared as soon as the Scrutiny is over. Printed Lists of the Proprietors having Votes, will be ready to be delivered at the Bank on Thursday the 6th of April.

Royal Exchange Assurance-Office, March 8, 1726.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, That the Transfer Books of the said Company will be shut from Thursday the 16th Instant, to Thursday the 13th of April next, in order to a Dividend.
