

Number of Men being more than her Complement, one Hundred of them were supposed to be intended for the Use of the Galleons. On the 18th Instant, N. S. the Mary Sloop, John Hines Master, entered this Port in four Days from Gibraltar, the Master whereof reports, that he lay Fifty two Days in that Bay, and upon his Departure left the whole British Garrison in perfect Health and good Order; that the Spaniards had formed three Batteries against the Place, and had dismounted two or three of the Garrison's Cannon, in Return for above 10 of their own that were dismounted: And that only three common Soldiers and one Gunner had as yet been killed on the Side of the English; whereas the Spanish Army was very considerably diminished, not only by the brisk Fire from the Place, but likewise by Numbers that are continually deserting, (several of whom arrive here daily) notwithstanding the frequent Execution of Deserters in the Camp.
