

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 8. to Tuesday April 11. 1717.

St. James's, April 11.

THE following humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Whitechurch in the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty by John Conduitt and Thomas Farringdon, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Whitechurch in the County of Southampton, met together to elect a Member to represent them in Parliament.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Acknowledgements for the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your most gracious Government; and for your unwearied Endeavours to continue them to your People.

We heard with great Surprise and Concern the Emperour and King of Spain, in a Time of full Peace, prohibit the Woollen Manufactures; on which we so much depend; and it is with the highest Repentment we see; contrary to all Faith and Treaties; one of those Princes setting up an unjustifiable Trade, to the great Prejudice of this Kingdom, in Countries conquered for him with British Blood and Treasure; and the other openly attacking that important Fortres which was yielded to this Nation by the same Treaty to which he owes his Crown.

The Engagements entered into in Favour of a Popish Pretender filled us with Indignation, and the insolent Attempts to deceive and mislead your People; only serve to raise in us a stronger Abhorrence of the Falshood and Ingratitude of those who offer them, and a warmer Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Honour, and our happy Establishment in your Royal Family; in Defence of which we assure your Majesty we will upon all Occasions exert ourselves with the greatest Chearfulness, and to the utmost of our Power, against the Violence or Artifice of any open or secret Enemies whatsoever.

The following humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Aylesbury, in the County of Bucks, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Stanhope, Kt. and Richard Abel, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Antient Borough of Aylesbury, in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our most grateful Sense of the many great and valuable Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Government. When we reflect

[Price Two Pence.]

