St. James's, April 18.

HE following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Antrim, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others, assembled at an Assize held for the County of Antrim, the 18th Day of March, 1726.

Most Gracious Sovereign, WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being highly fensible of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your most auspicious Reign, and having a just Dread of a Pretender, educated in Principles destructive of our present excellent Constitution, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of all Attempts made to disturb the horrence of all Attempts made to disturb the Peace of the Father of our Country, whether they proceed from such of your Subjects whom even your Majesty's unparalell'd Clemency cannot reclaim, or from foreign Powers who ungratefully prefume to return the highest Favours and greatest Obligations from your Majesty by Insults and repeated Affronts, by forming Alliances to dispossels us of our just Rights and Acquisitions, and undermine the Trade and Commerce of a Nation who raised one to that dangerous Height which has inspired him with those ambitious and arbitrary Designs, and by giving Peace to the other, secured him in the quiet Polletsion of his tot-

Gur Hearts are filled with inexpressible Joy -to find, that those Princes who have encroached on the undoubted Privileges of your Majefty's Subjects, draw their chief Hopes of Suc-

ty, who are actuated by those pernicious Principles and wicked Inclinations, which have in all Relgns either opposed a good Prince, or flattered a bad.one.

We beg Leave also to assure your Majesty, that we are, from the Principles of Religion, Reason, unshaken Loyalty, and Gratitude, immoveably resolved to stand by your most facred Majesty in Desence of your just Rights, and the Succession in your Royal House, with our Lives and Fortunes against all Opposers; and will, in our respective Stations, not only take Care to put the Laws in Execution against your profess'd Enemies, but also keep a watchful Eye over any that shall betray the least Disaffection to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

That your Majesty's prudent Counsels, and the Resolution of your loving Subjects, may in a short Time convince the whole Worldhow ridiculous all Attempts must be on a Protestant King who reigns in the Hearts of a powerful Protestant People, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant-General Wade, one of the Representatives for the said City, and Mr. Serjeant Eyre their Recorder, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle and the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, Which Address His Majesty was pleafed to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common-Council of your ancient City of Bath.

Dread Sovercign, WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, beg leave to return your Majesty our ceis from the groundless Informations of a few beg leave to feturn your Majesty our turbulent Spirits, a desperate and baffled Par- sincere Acknowledgements for your continued

Price Two Pence:

Care and fuccessful Endeavours in the advancing the Honour, and promoting the Interest of this Kingdom. As this your Majesty's great Care of your People hath filled their Hearts with Gratitude, so hath it raised in some foreign Powers a Spirit of Envy and Contention, infomuch that without the least Colour of Justice, at a great Expence of Men and Money, (and we hope in the End to their Confusion and Disappointment) they have attempted to force from your Majesty a Part of your Dominions, and are endeavouring to ruin the Commerce of the whole: Not content with these Injuries already offered to your Majesty and the Kingdom, they have allo projected to impose on us the Pretender, whom we have abjured, and whom we are bound for ever to oppose, as we tender our Religious and Civil Rights. These Proceedings and Projects of the Powers confederated against your Majesty, make it seasonable for your Subjects to declare their unalterable Refolutions to defend your Majesty against all your Enemies whatsoever; which Resolution on our Parts, we defire to affure your Majesty we shall be always ready to execute to the utmost of our Power, being obliged thereto by our Oaths, our Interest, and our Gratitude.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this 11th Day of April, in the 13th Year of your Majesty's most glorious Reign.

The following humble Address of the Constable of the Castle, Portreeve, Aldermen and Burgesles of Neath, and of the Inhabitants of the feveral Mannors or Lordships Marchers of Neath, Neath Ultra, and Killebybill, Neath Citra and Britton, anciently belonging to the Jurisdiction of the said Castle of Neath, in the County of Glamorgan; And also of the Constable of the Castle, Portreeve, and Burgesles of Aberavan, and of the Inhabitants of the Lordships of Avan and Avan Wallia, anciently depending on the Jurisdiction of the said Castle of Aberavan; has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Buily Mansel, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Constable of the Castle, Fortreeve, Aldermen and Burgelles of Neath, and of the Inhabitants of the feveral Mannors or Lordships Marchers of Neath, Neath Ultra and Killebybill, Neath Citra and Britton, anciently belonging to the Jurisdiction of the said Castle of Neath, in the County of Glamorgan. And also of the Constable of the Castle, Portreeve and Burgesses of Aberavan, and of the Inhabi-*tants of the Lordships of Avan and Avan

Wallia, anciently depending on the Jurisdiction of the laid Castle of Aberavan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Y OUR Majesty's early Care to prevent the fecret Machinations and Deligns of our Enemies Abroad, not only to ruin our Trade, but even to deprive us of our Religion, Liberties, and every Thing else that is most dear to a free People, is so apparent to all your Subjects, that even we who live in the Marches of Wales, a remote Part of your Majesty's Dominions, cannot be ignorant thereof, nor fuffer ourselves to be wanting in our Duty to make our most humble and grateful Acknowledgment to your Majesty, for the same, and to declare our Abhorrence and Detestation of the Indignity lately offered to your Majesty and the British Nation by the Resident of the Emperour of Germany, whose pretended Gratitude, Affection and Esteem for this Nation, had been best manifested, as our Representatives have declared, by doing Honour to the King whom the People honour, and Justice to the People whole Rights are now invaded by his Allies, and defended by the best of Princes, even with the Hazard of his own Dominions in Germany.

But it is our Happiness that the powerful Forces of Spain, Rulfia, and Germany, lye at so great a Distance from one another, that your Majesty, with the Fleet of Great Britain, is able to hinder their Conjunction; and that your Majesty's Experience, Wildom, and Forelight is such, that in cale any of your Ministers, under the specious Pretence of Frugality, should have advised your Majesty to have suffered the Russians to distress the Northern Princes, whereby they might have been obliged, for their own Safety, to give Liberty to the Russian Fleet to pass the Sound, and to have free Access to the Ports opposite to North-Britain, your Majesty would have been so far from being misled by such evil Counsel, that on the contrary you would have looked upon such Counsellours as Betrayers of the true Interest of your Majesty and your People.

There are none of your Majesty's Subjects that have read the British History, can forget how often Forces from the Northern Ports have formerly been transported into this Island with Success; and there are none that know the Situation thereof, but must be fensible how easy it will be at any Time to follow the same Example, if not prevented by the Fleet of Great Britain; neither can it be believed, that Spain would begin a War with this Nation, if there were not Designs carrying on of the greatest Danger to us, and to the Tranquility of all Europe: How then can we sufficiently acknowledge the great Providence of God in placing your Majesly on the British Throne, and inspiring into your Thoughts a Resolution of sending your Fleet Abroad in due Time into the Baltick, West-Indies, Indies, and the Mediterranean Seas, in order to avert the imminent Danger hanging over our Heads? And we cannot but with Pleasure observe, that all this hath been done by Expences circulating at Home, fince the Fleet is repaired with our own Workmen, supplied with our own Provisions, and mann'd with our own Seamen. We are also sensible, and all good Subjects must concur with us therein, that all those who shall shew their Love to their Country by Unanimity in fuch a critical Conjuncture of Affairs as this is, will take the best and most effectual Means to establish the true and lasting Interest of themfelves and their Posterity.

We cannot therefore conclude this our humble Address without our Prayers to Almighty God to unite the Hearts and Hands of all your Subjects, in order to enable your Majesty to carry on the necessary Desence of Great Britain with Vigour and Success, against all its powerful Enemies, and thereby to preserve the happy Constitution of this Government both in Church and State, which is such as has been ever the Glory of this Nation, and the Envy of all others; and which your Majesty, with the Concurrence of your great Counsel in Parliament assembled, may yet in due Time make more Glorious, by establishing such an inexhaustible Fund on that Foundation, as will be sufficient to pay off the publick Debts in a reasonable Time, with Honour to your Majesty, and with Advantage to every private Subject.

May your Majesty long reign over us with Success against all your Enemies; may your great Counsel in Parliament assembled, as well as the Ministry you shall employ, always act with that Unanimity and Steadiness for the Cood of your Majesty and your People. for the Good of your Majesty and your People, as they now do; and may this Kingdom of Great Britain never want a Protestant Heir of your illustrious Family to imitate your glorious Example in your just and mild Administration at Home, and in preserving the Balance of Europe Abroad, and consequently reign (like your Majesty) in the Hearts of all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of all the Commonalty of this Kingdom.
