The London Gazette.

publiched by Authority.

From Suelday April 25. to Saturday April 29. 1727.

St. James's, April 29.

HE following humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juftices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, has been presented to His Majesty by the High Sheriff, and several other Gentlemen of that County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Onflow Lord Lieutenant of the faid County. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously, and conferred the Honour of Knighthood on Thomas Stevens, Efq; the High-Sheriff.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, met at Guildford, at the Affizes there holden for the faid County.

WHEN we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects reflect upon the many Blessings we enjoy under your glorious and wise Administration, we cannot sufficiently express our unseigned Thanks for the fame.

Neither can we, without Indignation, see one Prince (from whom better Returns might have been expected) invading the most valuable Branches of the Trade of this Nation, and another endeavouring to wrest out of your Majesty's Hand the strong Fortress of Gibraltar and Port Mahon, confirmed by solemn Treaties, when gained by the victorious Arms of Great Britain, the only Part of the Conquest referved to themselves, after a long, bloody, and fuccessful War.

We also beg Leave to express our utmost Deteftation of the Pretender, his Adherents and Abettors, and well hope, no Infatuation can ever to far befall this People and Nation, as to exchange for Tyranny, Popery, and Slavery, thole most valuable Blettings the true Reform'd Religion and English Liberties, which we now enjoy.

(Price Three Pence.)

Next to the Providence of God, we rely on your Majefty for Safety and Protection, and doubt not but by the Force of your Arms and the Wifdom of your Council, those Difturbers of the Peace, and Liberties of Europe, will foon be brought to Reafon, which shall always be the hearty Prayers and Wifnes of, Your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addrefs of the Lord-Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juftices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Bedford, has been prefented to His Majefty by Theophilus Dillingham, Efq; High-Sheriff, and Sir Rowland Alfton, Bart. one of their Reprefentatives in Parliament, and others, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Kent, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Bedford. Which Addrefs His Majefty was pleafed to receive very gracioufly.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Bedford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W HILST your Majefty's Subjects are contending with each other who fhall beft express their Gratitude for your paternal Care of your People, permit us, Great Sir, to joyn with them in our unfeigned Acknowledgments of that Duty which we owe to your Majefty for your gracious Protection of us from our Enemies. The daily Inflances your Majefty gives of the tender Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of these Dominions, afford no small Advantage to those who are late in addressing your Majefty, by continually supplying them with fresh Afguments of Praife and Affection for your facred Person : Your Majefty's Sagacity in discovering, and Vigour in preventing the treacherous Deligns of your Enemies, must excite in us the bighest Notions of your Wildom and Prudence, efpecially when we consider that the Storm that threamed

Contraction of the second