

abhor and despise such impotent Malice, and resolve, with our utmost Endeavours, to assist your Majesty in asserting and promoting the Glory of your Reign, and the Settlement of the Protestant Succession in your own Royal Family.

And therefore whatever Measures your Majesty, with the Advice of your Great Council in Parliament, shall think fit and proper to be taken at this Juncture to suppress the Violence of haughty and imperious Powers Abroad, we shall heartily endeavour to keep Peace and Contentment at Home, and shall pray for the Divine Blessing on the Arms of your Majesty and your Allies, to reduce all exorbitant Power, and soon to restore the Repose of Europe.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Carnarvon, has been presented to His Majesty by John Griffith and Thomas Wynn, Esqrs, Members of Parliament for the County of Carnarvon, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondeley Lord-Lieutenant of North-Wales. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Carnarvon, at the great Sessions held at Conway, April 4, 1727.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly affected with the Sense of the many Blessings which we do enjoy under your Majesty's most just and happy Government, beg Leave upon this Occasion to return our sincere Thanks to your most gracious Majesty for the great Care and vigilant Concern for the Peace and Liberties of Europe, and more especially for defending the Rights and Interest of your British People.

We are truly sensible of the Necessity and Justice of those wise Measures your Majesty has taken to prevent (if possible) a War, or to make it successful, and, under God, we doubt not of the utter Disappointment of those Powers, who in Breach of solemn Treaties have invaded our Rights, and disturbed the Tranquility of Europe.

As we know too well, that a Popish King must be the greatest Punishment to these your Kingdoms, so we esteem the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family to be the most valuable Blessing we can enjoy and secure to our Posterity.

May your Majesty's wise Counsels be still employed for the Safety of all your People, and may your Royal Majesty live long to be the Guardian and Protector of all our Rights, Liberties and Properties, are the hearty Prayers of, &c.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and other principal Inhabitants of His Majesty's Ancient Corporation and Town and County of Haverford-West, has been presented to His Majesty by Erasmus Philipps, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and other Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Ancient Corporation and Town and County of Haverford-West.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN we reflect on your Majesty's princely Care and Vigilance in discovering to your People the Methods your Enemies take, by entering into Measures to disturb your Royal Quiet; and when we consider the many Blessings we have long enjoyed, and hope long to enjoy, under your Majesty's most just and gracious Government, we cannot but beg Leave to give your Majesty fresh Assurances of our Loyalty on all Occasions, and that we shall, as far as lies in our Power, contribute towards supporting your Majesty and your Royal Family against all Persons whatsoever, as well in your rightful and just Possession of the Crown, as in the Preservation of those Places, which, we hope, may prove standing Monuments of the Success of the Arms of Great Britain.

And as the Welfare of this Nation consists very much in the Extent of its Commerce and Trade, so we do not in the least doubt but your Majesty will take such Measures as may protect it in all its Branches, that those Persons who are emulous of its Glory, may never have it in their Power to disturb the same.

We have a just Abhorrence of the personal Affront offered lately to your most sacred Majesty in a Memorial, presented in a very uncommon Manner, filled with Invectives only to create Jealousies in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects. But that all such Attempts may prove Abortive, and that your Majesty may long live to possess the Hearts of all your People, is the sincere Desire of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most obedient, and most faithful Subjects

The