Madrid, May 5, N. S. The Advices from the Camp before Gibraltar have been for a long Time fo difagreeable, that all Talk about that Siege is generally forborn, as well in this City as at Court. Upon the whole we learn, that our Approaches have been very much retarded, and our Troops extremely incommoded by the great Rains that have fallen of late ; that our General Officers continue divided about the Method of carrying on the Siege; and that in the Way it now is, every body, but the Conde de las Torres who takes the whole Direction upon himfelf, gives over all Hopes of fucceeding in that Enterprize.
