Lord Finch, Comptroller, Master of the Rolls,
 Mr. Vice-Chamberlain, Lord Ch. Justice Eyre,
 Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, William Pulteney, Esq;
 Sir Robert Sutton,
 Ld. Ch Justice Raymond, Henry Pelham, Esq;

AT the Court at Leicester-House, the 14th Day of June, 1727.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty, being this Day Present in Council, was pleased to make the following Declaration, viz.

THE sudden and unexpected Death of the King, my dearest Father, has filled my Heart with so much Concern and Surprise, that I am at a Loss how to express myself upon this great and melancholly Occasion.

I am sensible of the Weight that immediately falls upon me, by taking the Government of a Nation so Powerful at Home, and of such Influence and Consequence Abroad; but my Love and Affection to this Country, from my Knowledge and Experience of you, makes me resolve chearfully to undergo all Difficulties for the Sake and Good of my People.

The Religion, Laws, and Liberties of the Kingdom are most dear to me; and the Preservation of the Constitution in Church and State, as it is now happily established, shall be my first, and always my chief Care.

And as the Alliances entered into by the late King, my Father, with foreign Powers, have contributed to the restoring the Tranquility, and preserving the Balance of Europe, I shall endeavour to cultivate those Alliances, and to improve and perfect this great Work, for the Honour, Interest, and Security of my People.

Whereupon the Lords of the Council made it their humble Request to His Majesty, that this His Majesty's most gracious Declaration to their Lordships might be made publick; which His Majesty was pleased to order accordingly.

Edward Southwell.
