

We cannot enough admire your Majesty's Goodness and Affection to your People, in taking their Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Constitution in Church and State, under your Royal Care and Protection; which, as it opens to us a delightful Prospect of Happiness under the Benign Administration of your Majesty, (in whom Wisdom, Courage, and all other Princely Virtues, eminently shine) so we have not the least doubt, but that the same Almighty Being will strengthen your Hands to perform what in his Goodness to us, he has so graciously put into your Heart: And therefore, as it behoves us, (with all possible Sincerity) we humbly presume to congratulate your Majesty upon your quiet and peaceable Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, according to your undoubted Right.

That your Majesty may not only be enabled to cultivate the Alliances which our late King so wisely entered into with Foreign Powers, for restoring the Tranquility, and preserving the Balance of Europe, but to improve and perfect this great Work; We assure your Majesty, that we will (in Conjunction with the rest of your loyal Subjects) stand by and support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in all your Undertakings.

And that your Reign may be long, peaceable, and prosperous over us, shall be the continual Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, has been presented to His Majesty by Harry Waller, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, and Edmund Waller, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, beg Leave to condole with you on the Loss of his late Majesty of blessed Memory, and to congratulate and express our Joy for your Majesty's happy Accession to these Kingdoms.

We call to Mind all your great and amiable Qualities, which you have so distinguishingly made known to us and the whole World: From your Courage and Wisdom, it cannot be doubted, but that under your Majesty's Administration we shall be a great and happy People, and that Great Britain will be the true Balance of Power in Europe. Now our Trade will revive, and our Debts be really decreased; and sure our Enemies can no longer flatter themselves by their Pretences of Promises or Conventions, to gain Gibraltar, which is but a little Reward for the vast Expence of that War, and the Hazard we run when you so bravely engaged for the Preservation of Europe, our Religion and Liberties.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Zeal to your Royal Person, and that we will sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Support of your Majesty's undoubted Rights both at Home and Abroad.

May your Majesty have a long and prosperous Reign over us, and when full of Years and Glory Heaven shall remove you from us, that we may never want one sprung from your Royal Person to fill your Throne, are the hearty Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Waller Bacon and Robert Brittiffe, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave heartily to condole with you on the sudden and surprizing Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign; a Loss so great, as would have been insupportable, had he not been succeeded by your Majesty, whose Royal and Princely Virtues, Wisdom, and Courage, (so conspicuously apparent) are sufficient Reasons and convincing Proofs of pronouncing to ourselves, under your auspicious Reign, a constant Series of Bliss and Happiness: And our Joys are greatly increased by the Assurances your Majesty has been pleased to give us, in your most gracious Declaration, of your Love and Affection to this Nation; of preserving to us our Religion, Laws, and Liberties; and sup-
