St. James's, August 19.

The following humble Address of the Archbishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Armagh, at the Visitation of the said Diocese, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Armagh, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the great and unexpected Loss of our late most gracious King, whose Memory will always be held in Veneration in these Nations, for the tender Regard, he, on all Occasions, shewed to the Religion and Liberties, and Happiness of his People; and for his Care to preserve Peace and Tranquility, by maintaining the Balance of Power in Europe.

At the same Time we most heartily congratulate your Majesty on your most happy and peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Father: And from the full Assurance we place in your Royal Word, it is with unspeakable Pleasure and Satisfaction that we have seen your Majesty's most gracious Declaration in Council, and Speech to your Parliament in Great Britain.

The Sense your Majesty is pleased to express of those invaluable Blessings we enjoy in our Religion, in our Liberty, and in our Property; the Promise you so graciously give us of your constant Care to preserve our present happy Constitution both in Church and State, and your fix'd Resolution to merit the Love and Affection of your People, are such powerful Engagements to the greatest Duty and Loyalty from your Subjects, that we are persuaded they will never fail of procuring those Returns of Zeal and Gratitude they justly demand.

And we have the greater Confidence in your Majesty's most gracious Declarations, because by your Presence for many Years amongst us, and by your entire Knowledge of the Affairs of Great Britain, you thoroughly comprehend what those Rights are which you promise to maintain, and are well acquainted with that Constitution which you engage to preserve; and by the ready Support on all Occasions given to your Royal Father by his People, you have seen the Greatness of a Prince who reigns in the Affections of his Subjects. And we do not doubt but your wife Pursuit of the Measures laid down by him, will bring that Peace to a happy Conclusion, of which he has left us a near Prospect.

And the Blessings we have enjoyed under his late Majesty, and are assured we shall enjoy under your most auspicious Reign, are the more valuable, as by the numerous Issue with which it hath pleased God to bless your Majesty, we may justly hope they will be continued down to our latest Posterity for ever.

We most humbly beg Leave on this Occasion to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our constant Endeavour, by our Example as well as our Instructions, to instill into the People committed to our Care, the Principles of Obedience and Loyalty to your most sacred Person, and of Affection to your Royal Family.

May Almighty God bless your Majesty with Wisdom in your Counsels and Success in your Undertakings: May He defeat the Attempts of all your Enemies both at Home and Abroad: May He grant you a long and prosperous Reign in this World, and crown you with everlasting Glory in the World to come: And may He continue the Blessings of Peace and Plenty, of true Religion and of Liberty, to these Nations, under your Royal Posterity, to the latest Ages.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, having been transmitted to Sir Francis Forbes and Sir John Thompson, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Citizens of

of your Majesty's City of Londonderry, having a most grateful Remembrance of the ineffimable Blessings we enjoyed under the auspicious Government of our late most gracious Sovereign, beg Leave, with the greatest Humility and Duty, to condole with your Majesty on the Death of your Royal Father, which would have been an unspeakable Loss to us, if not abundantly repaired by your Majesty's immediate Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

The short Taste we formerly had of your most wise Administration, and the remarkable Love you have on all Occasions expressed for your People, banish all Grief from your most dutiful Subjects at this great Juncture.

But when we consider your Majesty's universally acknowledged Wisdom and early Valour in Behalf of the Protestant Interest and the Liberties of Europe; when we view all the Royal Virtues that ever illustrated the Mind of the most Heroick Prince united in your Majesty, and demonstrated to your People by innumerable Instances of Clemency and Goodness; when we observe in your Majesty that exalted Principle of governing a free People, and an unshaken Resolution of preserving our most excellent Constitution in Church and State; when we reflect on the most distinguished Character of your Royal Consort, and her unalterable Adherence to the Protestant Interest; and when we call to our Remembrance your Majesty's numerous and most hopeful Issue, educated to convey the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign to our late Posterity; we are so transported with Joy, that we want Words to express the Congratulation of our Hearts.

And as these Prospects (highly delightful to us) tend effectually to destroy the Hopes of the Enemies of our Peace, so we trust they will discourage their Attempts for the future, and remove for ever from us all Apprehensions of Arbitrary and Popish Councils; the bitter Effects of which this your loyal City (within most of our Memories) has sensibly felt, for its firm Attachment to the Protestant Religion, and the Liberties of the Nation.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous and that you may have the Hearts and Hands of all your Subjects as sincerely devoted to your Service as,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Address of the French Protestant Refugees in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

AU ROI,

SIRE,

VOS tres soumis et tres fidelles Sujets les Protestants François Réfugiés dans vôtre Royaume d'Irlande, approchent aujourd'hui au Throne de vôtre Majesté, pour lui rendre leurs premiers Homages.

Nous avons ressenti, Sire, la Mort du Roy vôtre auguste Pere, comme une Calamité politique; et rien n'auroit pu nous consoler de cette Perte qui intéresse également l'Eglise et l'Etat, si nous n'avions trouvé en la Personne de vôtre Majesté, l'Heretier des Vertus de ce sage Monarque; aussi bien que celui de son Sceptre.

Ce sont ces Vertus bienfaisantes, ces qualités Heroïques qui forment les bons et les grands Rois, et que l'Europe voit briller en vôtre Majesté, qui vont faire désormais la Felicité de vos Peuples.

Quel Support, et quelle Protection n'en doit point attendre en particulier un Peuple le Souffrans, qui porte depuis tant d'Années la Croix de Jesus Christ. Et que ne pouvons nous point esperer d'un Roy que Dieu nous a donné selon son Coeur, et selon le nôtre.

Permettez nous, Sire, d'assurer vôtre Majesté de nôtre Fidelité inviolable pour vôtre Personne sacrée, et de la Continuation de nôtre Zèle pour la Prosperité et la Gloire de nôtre nouvelle Patrie.

Puisse vôtre Majesté et nôtre auguste Reine, l'Ornement de son Siècle, faire ensemble pendant une longue Suite d'Années, les Délices de la Grande Bretagne; et puis, ent les Princes de vôtre Serénissime Maison occuper après vous le Throne de ces Etats jusqu'à la Posterité la plus reculée.

The following humble Address of the Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, assembled at the General Quarter sessions of the Peace, held at Beaumares for the said County, on Monday the 10th Day of July 1727, has been presented to His Majesty by Owen Meyrick, Esq, Custos Rotulorum of the said County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting.

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our unfeigned Grief for the sudden and unexpected Death of your Royal Father our late gracious Sovereign; a Loss so insupportable to all Europe, but to these your Kingdoms especially, that nothing could repair it but the succession of so great and good a Prince as your Majesty is; so that with Hearts exalted with utmost Transports of Joy, we heartily congratulate your Majesty's peaceable Accession to the Crown of these Realms as our lawful and rightful King.

Your Majesty's adhering to the Alliances so wisely entered into by your Royal Father, (whose Memory will be dear to the true Lovers of their Country, as long as Virtue remains in the Breast of brave Britons); your early and voluntary Declaration of your Love and Affection to your People, and your Resolution to govern them according to the Laws established, are such Proofs of your Princely Wisdom and Goodness, as must fill our Hearts with the sincerest Acknowledgments and Gratitude, and give us a delightful Prospect of a prosperous and glorious Reign under your Majesty.

When we reflect, that these great Blessings are to be secured and continued to this Nation in a numerable and hopeful Issue, descended from your Majesty, and educated under the Care of a prudent and virtuous Mother our most gracious Queen, known to be so inviolably attached to the Protestant Religion, that for the Sake of it she resisted and despised the greatest Wordly Glory and Temptations, we are assured our Posterity, as well as ourselves, will be the greatest and happiest People upon Earth.

Permit us, dread Sovereign, to assure your Majesty, that with our Lives and Fortunes we will support your Government, and cheerfully sacrifice every Thing dear to us in the Defence of a King, whose sole Aim and chiefest Pleasure is the Good of his People.

That your Majesty may long reign over us; that your Royal Consort may long be a Blessing and an Ornament to these Realms; that latest Posterity may be ruled and governed by a Prince of your illustrious House; and that all People of these Nations may be most loyal and dutiful Subjects, are the hearty Prayers of,
Your Majesty's most dutiful
and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the loyal and ancient Borough of Bradninch, in the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by James Sheppard, Esq; one of His Majesty's Serjeants at Law and Recorder of the said Borough, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms.

The unexpected Death of your late Royal Father, (of ever blessed Memory) and the peaceable Accession of your Majesty to the Throne, raised so great a Conflict in us for some Time, that whilst we mourned for the Loss of so good and gracious a Sovereign, we at the same Time could not help rejoicing at the pleasing Prospect of those Blessings which (from what we before had tasted under your Princely Bounty and Goodness) we were now well assured of enjoying under the happy Government of your Majesty, whose early and consummate Virtue and Concern for the Protestant Religion, and the Publick Peace and Welfare of Europe, have been as universally admired as conspicuous to the whole World.

We should therefore be wanting to ourselves, if we did not take this Opportunity to let your Majesty know the grateful Sentiments we have of your Majesty's assuring us so soon, and in such solemn a Manner, that our happy Constitution, as now established, both in Church and State, will always be your first and chief Care, and the Interest and Happiness of your People the End of all your Actions.

And as your Majesty is graciously pleased to declare that you place your Security in the Love and Affection of your People; we, on our Parts, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that you shall always rest secure in us, who hold ourselves under the strictest Ties of Gratitude, as well as Duty, bound, always to assist in Defence of your Majesty, both at Home and Abroad, to the utmost of our Power, against all who shall dare attempt the least Disturbance of your Reign.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and happy: May you be always bless'd with a numerous Royal Off-spring; for from thence only can we hope the Preservation and Continuance of our Religious and Civil Rights to Posterity.

These are the hearty Prayers of,
Your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Inquest for the County of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Henry Berkeley, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Deloraine Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Gloucester, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your sacred Person; and, after due Condolance for the Death of our late Sovereign your Royal Father, to congratulate your Majesty's happy and peaceable Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

A Prince of such illustrious Descent, and so many Royal Endowments, must raise the Hopes and rejoyce the Heart of every Subject. But the most gracious and solemn Assurance your Majesty hath given us, that our Religion, Liberty, Property and Laws, (the most valuable Blessings of a free People, and the peculiar Privileges of this Nation) shall be inviolably preserved to us, cannot but fill the Breast of every true Briton with the most grateful Joy.

'Tis with the greatest Pleasure we observe in the first Acts of your Majesty's Reign, the truest truest Basis laid for the highest future Glory. Your Majesty, from a true knowledge of our Constitution, and the Genius of the British People, places the best Support and Security of your Crown in the Love and Affections of your Subjects. As this cannot fail of meeting with all just Regard to your Dignity and Prerogative, and the sincerest Returns of Duty and Loyalty on their Part, so it has never yet failed of making a British Prince truly great and powerful both at Home and Abroad.

That your Majesty may long live to exalt the British Glory to a higher Pitch than the best and greatest of your Royal Progenitors, to finish the glorious Scheme begun by your Royal Father, of settling a Balance of Power and establishing a lasting and honourable Peace in Europe, and to diffuse your powerful Influences in the Defence of the Protestant Religion and common Liberties of other Nations, as well as those of your own;

And that your Majesty, full of Years and Glory, may very late transmit your regal Diadem to an illustrious Prince of your own Royal House, and of equal Royal Vertues, in exchange for a Crown of Immortality, is the Prayer of,
May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful
and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address, of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Cardigan, together with the Principal Burgesses of the Borough of Cardigan, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Lisburne Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County, to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to condole your Majesty on the Death of your Royal Father our late Sovereign, of glorious Memory, the happy Influences of whose auspicious Reign must ever have a grateful Remembrance in Great Britain; but in no Instance more particularly than this, that it laid a Foundation for your Majesty's happy and peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

This alone comforted us in our Affliction, and your Majesty's Succession has turned our Grief into Joy and sincere Congratulation, which we beseech your Majesty to accept of, together with our most hearty and unfeigned Assurances of Duty and Gratitude, in return for your paternal Care of your faithful Subjects, their Rights and true Interests, which we do, and assure ourselves, we always may safely depend upon.

'Tis with much Pleasure we observe, the good Effects of the Union and Harmony between his late Majesty and his Parliament, an Example which ought, and (we hope) will incite all future Parliaments cheerfully to support the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of this Realm, to which your Majesty has an undoubted Right and Title.

It was our early and hearty Desire, that Princes of your Royal and illustrious House should rule over us, and now Experience teaches how greatly our present and future Felicity depends thereon.

What Blessings may we not expect from a Throne so happily filled, by your Majesty's most sacred Person! From so Excellent a Queen your Royal Consort, and such hopeful Issue! So many bright Ornaments which Providence seems to have bestowed as a Security of our most happy Establishment; which, with our Lives and Fortunes, we will endeavour to maintain and defend against all Opposition and Attempts whatsoever, and which (we hope) will continue inviolable so long as the Nation endures.

The following humble Address of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the Burgh of Perth, in North Britain, for themselves, and in Name of the Inhabitants and Community of the said Burgh, has been presented to His Majesty by Mungo Haldane of Gleneagles, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do in all Humility beg Leave, as on the one Hand, to express our deep Concern for the surprizing Death of our late Sovereign, of glorious Memory, whose consummate Wisdom, undaunted Resolution, and steady Administration, contributed so much not only to the Happiness of his own People, but also for the Preservation of the general Tranquillity of Europe, during the whole Course of his peaceable Reign; so on the other, most heartily to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, as the only Means, under God, to allay our Grief for the otherwise insupportable Loss of your Royal Father.

The shining Virtues that did appear in your Majesty's wife and prudent Conduct, when moving in a lower Sphere, make you now to ascend the Throne of your Royal Ancestors with the loudest Acclamations of all your loyal Subjects, and do give them a joyful Prospect of the great Happiness they promise to themselves under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Justice, your known Zeal for the Protestant Interest, your sincere and hearty Affection for all your People

People, do give us entire Confidence in your Majesty, that our Religion and Civil Liberties, and the Government of this Church, as presently established, shall be safely preserved, and unalterably secured unto us. And we do, with the greatest Cheerfulness, embrace this Opportunity, to declare our sincere Affection to your Sacred Person, and the Succession in your Royal Family; and at the same Time to profess our hearty and firm Resolution, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support, maintain and defend your Majesty's Person and Government, in Opposition to an attainted and abjured Popish Pretender, and all others who shall offer to invade your Majesty's just Right and Title.

That He, by whom King's reign, may preserve your Majesty long to sway the Scepter over a loving and happy People: That He may protect and defend you against secret and open Enemies: That He may conduct your Councils, and direct your Government, and make you the Guardian of the Protestant Religion both at Home and Abroad: That He may bless and preserve your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, and continue her a joyful Mother of Children: That his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family, may be always under the kind Influence of the Divine Favour and Protection: And that we may never want one of your Royal Issue to reign over us to latest posterity, is and shall be the Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful,
most loyal, and most obedient Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Monson, and Sir John Tirwhit, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

THE Experience we have had of many and great Blessings, under the Reign of your Majesty's Royal Father (of Happy Memory) and the well-grounded Expectation we entertain of yet more and greater, under your Majesty's own, cannot but render most hearty and sincere these our humble Addresses of Condolescence and Congratulation.

Your Majesty's steady Resolution to maintain all Engagements with your Allies, and to support our Constitution in Church and State, gives us a sure and unbounded Prospect of Peace Abroad, and of the full Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties at Home; since the same Providence which has appointed your Majesty to inherit the Virtues as well as Dominions of your great Predecessor, does now

(by your numerous and promising Issue) seem to design the Continuance of them to Generations yet to come.

We shall endeavour to shew our Sense of these Blessings, by a hearty Affection to your Majesty's Person, a cheerful Obedience to your Commands, and good Will to one another; thereby to contribute what lies in us to those great and inseparable Ends, the Honour and Safety of your Majesty, and the Peace and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

Given under our common Seal this 10th Day of July 1727.

The following humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and other Inhabitants of the Ancient City of Peterborough, met at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said City, and Liberty thereof, on Thursday the 13th of July 1727, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Fitzwilliams, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, were deeply affected with the sad and surprizing Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory. But while we condole that amazing Loss, we joy heartily in the common Joy and Congratulations of all your People for your Majesty's happy Succession to his Crown and supreme Dignity.

As your great Predecessor was by Divine Providence the most noble Instrument of establishing and preserving the Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, so he has left us the Legacy of Peace at Home, and was the prime Author and Arbitrator of that general Peace so happily begun in all Europe, which we hope and pray may be fully compleated and confirmed under the Beginning of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

It fills our Hearts with Gladness that these Nations have had Experience of your princely Virtues, and a happy Specimen of your being able and willing to rule and govern the Kingdoms that are now your immediate Right and Possession, exclusive of all pretending Hopes or Fears.

We rejoyce in the most gracious Declaration your Majesty has already made to your good People, and with Pleasure depend upon your Royal Word of protecting and preserving our Rights, Liberties and Religion.

We rejoyce in the publick Happiness of your Majesty's having a Royal Consort of so great Prudence, Affability, and all other engaging Vertues, and a Royal Issue of such growing Hopes and Promises, that we can have nothing more in our Wishes and Prayers, than that that it may please God to grant your Majesty a long and glorious Reign over a willing and obedient People.

The following humble Address of the Bailiff and Inhabitants of the Borough of Heitesbury, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by Edward Ashe, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Inhabitants of the Borough of Heitesbury, in the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign; and at the same time to express our unfeigned Joy upon your Majesty's peaceable and happy Succession to the Throne.

Your Majesty's early Declaration in Council, and your most gracious Speech since made to both Houses of Parliament, confirm to us the Hopes of enjoying every Thing that can be esteemed dear to Britons and Protestants.

And when we farther reflect on the personal Virtues of your Majesty, and those of your Royal Consort our Queen, (the Delight and Ornament of the Age) we have nothing farther to ask of Heaven, but a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, and the Prosperity of all your Royal Issue.

That the Crown may ever sit easy on your Majesty's Head; and that you may find suitable Returns for such transcendent Goodness, shall be the constant Endeavours and most fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your most dutiful, most loyal,
and most obedient Subjects.
