

People, do give us entire Confidence in your Majesty, that our Religion and Civil Liberties, and the Government of this Church, as presently established, shall be safely preserved, and unalterably secured unto us. And we do, with the greatest Cheerfulness, embrace this Opportunity, to declare our sincere Affection to your Sacred Person, and the Succession in your Royal Family; and at the same Time to profess our hearty and firm Resolution, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support, maintain and defend your Majesty's Person and Government, in Opposition to an attainted and abjured Popish Pretender, and all others who shall offer to invade your Majesty's just Right and Title.

That He, by whom King's reign, may preserve your Majesty long to sway the Scepter over a loving and happy People: That He may protect and defend you against secret and open Enemies: That He may conduct your Councils, and direct your Government, and make you the Guardian of the Protestant Religion both at Home and Abroad: That He may bless and preserve your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, and continue her a joyful Mother of Children: That his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family, may be always under the kind Influence of the Divine Favour and Protection: And that we may never want one of your Royal Issue to reign over us to latest posterity, is and shall be the Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful,
most loyal, and most obedient Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Monson, and Sir John Tirwhit, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

THE Experience we have had of many and great Blessings, under the Reign of your Majesty's Royal Father (of Happy Memory) and the well-grounded Expectation we entertain of yet more and greater, under your Majesty's own, cannot but render most hearty and sincere these our humble Addresses of Condolesance and Congratulation.

Your Majesty's steady Resolution to maintain all Engagements with your Allies, and to support our Constitution in Church and State, gives us a sure and unbounded Prospect of Peace Abroad, and of the full Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties at Home; since the same Providence which has appointed your Majesty to inherit the Virtues as well as Dominions of your great Predecessor, does now

(by your numerous and promising Issue) seem to design the Continuance of them to Generations yet to come.

We shall endeavour to shew our Sense of these Blessings, by a hearty Affection to your Majesty's Person, a cheerful Obedience to your Commands, and good Will to one another; thereby to contribute what lies in us to those great and inseparable Ends, the Honour and Safety of your Majesty, and the Peace and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

Given under our common Seal this 10th Day of July 1727.

The following humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and other Inhabitants of the Ancient City of Peterborough, met at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said City, and Liberty thereof, on Thursday the 13th of July 1727, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Fitzwilliams, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, were deeply affected with the sad and surprizing Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory. But while we condole that amazing Loss, we joy heartily in the common Joy and Congratulations of all your People for your Majesty's happy Succession to his Crown and supreme Dignity.

As your great Predecessor was by Divine Providence the most noble Instrument of establishing and preserving the Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, so he has left us the Legacy of Peace at Home, and was the prime Author and Arbitrator of that general Peace so happily begun in all Europe, which we hope and pray may be fully compleated and confirmed under the Beginning of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

It fills our Hearts with Gladness that these Nations have had Experience of your princely Virtues, and a happy Specimen of your being able and willing to rule and govern the Kingdoms that are now your immediate Right and Possession, exclusive of all pretending Hopes or Fears.

We rejoyce in the most gracious Declaration your Majesty has already made to your good People, and with Pleasure depend upon your Royal Word of protecting and preserving our Rights, Liberties and Religion.

We rejoyce in the publick Happiness of your Majesty's having a Royal Consort of so great Prudence, Affability, and all other engaging Vertues, and a Royal Issue of such growing Hopes and Promises, that we can have nothing more in our Wishes and Prayers, than that
