

ty to your Majesty, as our only rightful and lawful Sovereign.

That Almighty God may bless your Majesty with long Life and a prosperous Reign: That Religion and Righteousness may be the Establishment of your Throne: That He may bless your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Issue, is, and shall be the hearty Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Ja. Baine, Moderator.

The following humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Hindon, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by George Heathcote and ——— Andrews, Esqrs. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit your most dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Hindon, to approach your Royal Person to express our just Concern for the universal Loss this Nation sustains in the Death of your Majesty's Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign.

The Preservation of the Rights and Liberties of his People, his constant and prudent Care in providing for the Support of the Honour and Interest of this Nation, and the happy Tranquility we enjoyed under his wise Administration, have render'd his Memory dear and sacred to us.

But of all the Blessings derived to us from him, there is none that equals that which we at present enjoy in the Establishment of the Crown in your Majesty's Royal Person and Family: Those exalted Virtues that adorn your Character, the good Effects we have already felt from them, with the many and particular Instances of Affection you have always shewn to this Nation, give us the strongest Assurance of our being the greatest and happiest People in the World.

We therefore, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration from the Throne, so perfectly agreeable to the British Constitution, and so well becoming the Wisdom and Goodness of the best of Princes, call for the most grateful and particular Acknowledgments of all your Subjects, and the strongest Assurances which we are capable of making, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, endeavour to support and maintain the invaluable Blessing of your Majesty's excellent Administration.

If there were any Room left for an Addition to our Happiness, the Prospect of its being continued down to our latest Posterity by your Majesty's numerous Royal Progeny, educated under the Influence and Example of your Majesty and the Queen your Royal Consort, would fully compleat it.

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and glorious, and ever attended with Felicity to yourself, equal to that you give your People, will be the constant Prayers of this your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough.

The following humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of the Burgh of Dundee, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE humbly beg Leave, in this Manner to approach your Throne with others of your loyal Subjects to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late Sovereign, whose seasonable Accession to the Crown preserved unto us, and we firmly hope, secured to Posterity after us, the unspeakable Blessings of the late glorious Revolution and Protestant Succession, and under whose wise Administration we were made sensible of the happy Effects of his paternal Care of his People.

What supports us under so great a Loss is your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, your undoubted Right, in a most peaceable Manner, and with the joyful Acclamations of all your loyal Subjects; upon which, we most cheerfully Congratulate your Majesty, having full Hopes from your eminent Royal Virtues, that we shall enjoy under your Reign, all the Blessings that can be derived from a Sovereign according to our Wishes.

We are greatly encouraged by your Majesty's having declared in the Beginning of your auspicious Reign, that you will maintain our Religion, Laws and Liberties; and we most humbly and dutifully assure your Majesty of our hearty Zeal and Affection for the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family, and of our utter Aversion to the Pretender, and inviolable Loyalty to your Majesty, upon whom, under God, we depend for all that's valuable to us as Men and Christians.

May all Divine Blessings attend your Majesty, your Royal Consort the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Issue; may there never be wanting a Prince of your Royal Line to sway the British Scepter; and after you have long upon Earth been the glorious Defender of the Protestant Cause, the Guardian of the Liberties of Europe, and the Delight of all your People, may you inherit in-