

immortal Bliss. These are the ardent Prayers of,
 May it please your Majesty,
 Your Majesty's most faithful; most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,
 The Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of your Burgh of Dundee.
 Sign'd in their Presence and by their Appointment, by Alex. Ferriar, Provost.
Dundee, July 14; 1727:

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Town and County of Southampton, in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Robert Eyre, Esq; their Recorder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of your Town and County of Southampton, beg Leave to express our Concern for the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, of blessed Memory; and at the same Time, with Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty, to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Your Majesty is endeared to this Nation by repeated Instances of Goodness and Benevolence. The Experience we have had of those Royal Virtues which adorned your private Life, and shone forth with so much Lustre in your publick Administration, assures us that you have nothing so much at Heart as the Welfare and Happiness of your People; and that our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and all those ineffimable Blessings which we enjoyed under his late Majesty, will not only be continued to us, but improved.

To complete our Happiness, we are bless'd in a Queen the Glory of her Sex, eminently distinguished for unexampled Constancy to that Faith, of which your Majesty is the great Defender.

May the same indulgent Providence that has left these Nations nothing to wish for but the Continuance of the Prosperity they now enjoy, make your Majesty's Reign long and happy over us and our Posterity; and may your illustrious Family ever supply us with Successors to the Crown of these Kingdoms, who shall follow the Examples of their Royal Predecessors.

Given under our common Seal this 3d Day of July, 1727.

The following humble Address of the Alderman, Capital Burgesses, Assitants, Landholders, and Commoners of your Ancient Borough of Malmsbury, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;
PERmit us; Great Sir; to condole with your most sacred Majesty the Death of our late Sovereign your Royal Father, of glorious Memory. Nothing could have repaired this Loss to your Dominions, but your Majesty's peaceable and happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors. The early Proofs you have given of your Courage, Conduct; and all other your princely Virtues, tending always to the Ease and Benefit of Mankind, gives us a certain Hope of the Blessings we your Subjects are to enjoy under your Majesty's Reign. We shall always think it our Duty to God and our Country, to maintain and defend your Majesty's most undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms. The numerous Issue with which the best of Queens your Royal Consort has bless'd these Kingdoms, are certain Marks of the Divine Favour to your People; tending to perpetuate to us the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberty under the Government of your Royal Family.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, having been transmitted by Richard Edgcombe, Esq, Custos Rotulorum of that County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave, with all Humility, to express our Sorrow and Concern for the Death of your Royal Father; and at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty on your peaceable Accession to the Imperial Throne of these Realms.

It must be undoubtedly the highest Satisfaction to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, that the Study of our Constitution and our Laws has been your principal Care and Concern; from hence being thoroughly assured, that our Religion and Liberties will be maintained within their proper Fences; and your Majesty's particular Experience must have taught you, that the best Support of your own Grandeur is in the Happiness of your People.

As this Nation has been of Old famous for holding the Scales of Europe, and, like Justice herself, with an impartial Hand, has weighed and determined the disputed Privileges of it; so we are confident, that under your Majesty's wise Government, we shall tenaciously insist on such as are peculiar to us; and whatever Claims have been hitherto made to Gibraltar, a Place so essential to our Trade, we are satisfied will be now at an End: For what can foreign Powers expect from us, but an united Resolution between King and People of protecting their common Rights?

And your Majesty's County of Cornwall in particular, which has always been more immediately
