

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 30. to Tuesday October 3. 1727.

St. James's, October 3.

THE following Addressees having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Down, at an Assizes held for the said County at Downpatrick, the 12th of August 1727.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to lay hold of this Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, which Blessing can only repair the Loss we have sustained by the Death of our late King your Royal Father, whose Memory must be ever dear to all your Protestant Subjects, and true Lovers of Liberty.

The repeated Assurances your Majesty has been graciously pleased to give, inviolably to maintain and defend the Religious and Civil Rights of your Subjects, challenge from us our most sincere and hearty Professions of Duty and Zeal for your Person and Government.

When we consider the Power and Influence of your Naval Forces, directed by your wife Counsels at Home; and behold your Majesty, a Prince of consummate Wisdom, the Arbitrer of Europe, holding the Balance of Power in your Hands; when we see your Royal Comfort our most gracious Queen, endowed with all conjugal as well as publick Vertues; your numerous Issue, the dear Pledges of our future Happiness, trained up from an early Infancy in the true Maxims of Government; what sure and certain Hopes must we have of a long and lasting Peace and Felicity?

Accept therefore, most gracious Sovereign, these our unfeigned Engagements, firmly to adhere to your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession established in your most illustrious House; and may you long reign, as you have begun, in the Hearts and Affections of your People, as the only Security of our Happiness at Home, and the Protestant Interest Abroad.

[Price Two-Pencé.]

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Donegall, met at a General Assizes held at Lifford on the 15th Day of August, 1727.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty for the Death of your Royal Father, of glorious Memory, and to congratulate your peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. It was with the greatest Pleasure we observed from your Majesty's most gracious Declaration in Council, that your Majesty had formed that Plan of Government which must naturally produce a Reign glorious and easy to yourself, and happy to your People. Whilst the established Religion, Laws and Liberties of your Kingdoms, which are so dear to your Subjects, are declared to be also dear to your Majesty, your People are secured in the most valuable of their Possessions, and have nothing left to wish for, but proper Occasions of manifesting their Duty and Gratitude to the wisest and best of Sovereigns.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, and happy in the Possession of your excellent Queen, the Glory of her Sex; of a hopeful Royal Issue, and the united Affections of all your People, are the sincere Prayers of us,

Your faithful Subjects of this County.

The following humble Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Aylesbury, in the County of Bucks, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Sir William Stanhope and Philip Lloyd, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to joyn with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, in giving your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our Duty and Loyalty to your Person and Government; as we sincerely joyn in the universal and undivided Joy of the whole Nation upon your

