St. James's, September 23.

THE following humble Address of the Right Reverend the Bishop, the Vicars General, and the rest of the Clergy of the Isle of Man, was presented to His Majesty on the 5th Instant, by the Reverend Mr. Thomas Wilson the said Bishop's Son, and the Reverend Mr. William Walker Vicar General of that Diocese, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously, and both the said Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept of the humble Address of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, the Vicars General, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Man, who would be the most ungrateful of their Order, were they either insensible of the Loss, or forgetful of the Favours of their late most gracious Sovereign; by whose Royal Bounty this Church did constantly receive such an Addition to her Revenues as preserved her Ministers from Poverty and Contempt.

We should be utterly unworthy of the Royal Protection, did we not sincerely rejoice with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, and acknowledge the Goodness of God in your Majesty's happy Succession. Our constant Endeavours shall be to recommend ourselves to your Majesty's Favour by a faithful Discharge of our Duty, and especially by offering our most devout Prayers to Almighty God for your Majesty's Prosperity: And that your Majesty's Reign may be distinguished by your rendering that Power and Authority, which your Majesty has received from God, effectual for defending the Faith, extending its Influence to the remotest of your Dominions, establishing the Kingdom of Christ, and suppressing that of Satan and the growing Vices of the Age; and that your Majesty may be happy in your Royal Issue, in an obedient People, and in a full Assurance of an everlasting Crown of Glory.

This being the only Tribute we can pay; we doubt not but your Majesty will graciously accept it from your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, as a sincere Testimony of their Allegiance and Fidelity.

They afterwards waited on the Queen, being introduced by Her Majesty's Vice Chamberlain Mr. Smith, were very graciously received by Her Majesty, and had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The following humble Address of the Corporation of Heddon, has been presented to His Majesty by William Pulteney, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Heddon, beg Leave, among the rest of your Subjects who have a true Sense of the Loss this Kingdom has sustained by the Death of your Royal Father, to express our Sorrows on this melancholly Occasion; and we do at the same Time congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to which no Prince ever yet succeeded with such general Joy and Satisfaction.

The long Knowledge and many convincing Proofs which the whole Nation has had of your Majesty's great Regard and tender Concern for the Religion, Laws and Liberties of these Kingdoms, sufficiently confirm our Dependance upon your most gracious Declaration in Council; and as we have the strongest

Assu-

Affurance of being under your auspicious Government a rich and happy People, so we hope to see your Majesty the greatest and most powerful of any of your Predecessors; beloved by all your Subjects at Home, and justly regarded as the Head and Support of the Protestant Interest Abroad.

The restoring our lost Trade to its former flourishing Condition, the securing to us our rightful Possessions of Port Mahon and Gibraltar, the paying of the National Debts, the reconciling our Divisions, and the settling the Publick Tranquility of Europe, are Glories reserved for your Majesty's Reign; and as we are satisfied, that your known Courage and Resolution will be always sufficient to assert the Honour and Glory of this Nation, so your consummate Wisdom will ever consult the true Interest of it.

May your Majesty and your Royal Consort long live to bless these Nations; and may your numerous Issue have the Virtues of both their Royal Parents united and blended in them, to make these Kingdoms happy to latest Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the 6th Day of July, 1727.

The following humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Town-Clerk, and Burgeses of the Common-Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Hervey and Col. Norton, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Clinton Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE deepest Sorrow and Concern that could afflict the Minds of your dutiful and loyal Subjects upon the sudden and unexpected Loss of your Majesty's late Royal Father, is turned into Joy, upon the many Blessings we promise to ourselves from the Earnest already given us, during your Regency, of the mild and gentle Administration of your Government.

The making it your Pleasure to acquaint yourself with the Laws of this Nation, and with the People which the Providence of God hath appointed you to govern, and your prudent Conduct in the lesser Sphere of private Life, are sure Presages that Wisdom and Goodness will be the Stability of your Time.

If your Royal Consort's refusing an Imperial Diadem for the Sake of supporting the Protestant Religion, hath been already rewarded with the Blessing of such a Progeny as no Nation can boast of, can your dutiful Subjects expect less, than that they will fill your Throne with equal Honour, (when your, full of Years, and Fame and Glory, must be taken from us,) and be the Envy as well as the Admiration of the Nations about us?

The Sacred Assurance your Majesty has been pleased to give of securing to us, and our Posterity, the Protestant Religion, together with our Laws and Liberties, (much dearer to us than our Lives) purchased with so much Blood and Treasure, (and in the Defence of which even your Majesty hath exposed and hazarded your Royal Person) hath so united the Hearts of your dutiful and loyal Subjects in Interest and Affection to your Government, that we shall be wanting to ourselves, as well as ungrateful to your Valour, and Love and Care of us, if we do not support the Honour and Dignity of your Crown with our Lives and Fortunes, upon all Occasions that require it.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall within the said Burgh, this 6th Day of September, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been presented to His Majesty by Daniel Pulteney, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to condolè with your Majesty the Death of your Royal Father, and at the same Time congratulate your Succession to his Imperial Crowns. Your Majesty and your Royal Issue are the best Consolations to your Kingdoms for so great a Loss, and secure to us and our Posterity all the Blessings and Happiness we have Reason to expect from the Government of your August Family. Your Majesty's Declaration in Council of your Love to your Kingdoms, from your Knowledge and Experience of your Subjects, and your gracious Assurance, that the Preservation of our Constitution in Church and State, shall be your chief Care, fill our Hearts with proper and due Sentiments of Gratitude and Affection. We were equally surprized and concerned at the Pretensions of the Spaniards to Gibraltar, which they had not only given up to us by the Treaty of Utrecht, but further confirmed to us by their Accession to the Quadruple Alliance: As we could never apprehend their taking it by Force, if properly supplied for a Defence; so we now assure ourselves they will never be able to gain it by Treaty, notwithstanding any Hopes wherewith they may flatter themselves, selves, or any Promises they may pretend. That your Majesty, for your own, and the Happinels of your Subjects, may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign; be always blessed with Peace, or crowned with Victory, shall be the constant Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addresses having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Aldermen, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and Citizens of the City of Limerick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty the Loss of our most gracious Sovereign, under whose auspicious Reign our Religious and Civil Rights were preserved inviolable, and the Power of the British Nation raised to the greatest Pitch: The Loss of such a Prince must have been insupportable, had not Providence opened to us a delightful Prospect of future and greater Blessings, if possible, by giving us a Successor who inherits all his Royal Virtues as well as his Dominions; and a Queen, that in her early Years preferred the Protestant Religion to an Imperial Diadem.

Permit us therefore, dread Sovereign, to congratulate your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and humbly to represent, that no Expressions can reach the Fulness of our loyal Hearts upon this great and joyful Occasion.

The universal Approbation with which your Reign begins, is a sure and happy Omen of a lasting Unanimity amongst all your Subjects; and your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, Experience and tried Valour, give us the utmost Assurances of all the Blessings the best of Subjects can desire under your Administration.

May the Almighty bless your Majesty with a long, a glorious and happy Reign over us; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Off-spring to preserve our excellent Constitution in Church and State; may all your Subjects be faithful and obedient, and may there be no Strife or Contention amongst us, but who shall be most loyal and dutiful to so great a Sovereign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Grand Jury,

Clergy, Freemen and Freeholders or your Majesty's Town and County of the Town of Galway in Ireland, assembled at the General Meezes held for the County of the said Town, the 28th Day of July, 1727.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to declare our great Concern and sorrow for the Death of your late gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to wish you a glorious and a very long and prosperous Reign, and that there never may be wanting of your family one to adorn and govern these Kingdoms.

We ally beg Leave to joyn with the rest of our fellow Subjects in Thanksgivings to God for our excellent Queen, the Ornament of the Protestant Religion, from whose numerous and Royal Issue, we have the pleasing Views of long and lasting Felicity and Happiness to these Kingdoms.

These pleasing and agreeable Prospects, your Majesty's early and distinguishing Manner of appearing for the Protestant Cause and the Liberties of Europe, your great and princely Virtues, with your Majesty's Declaration from the Throne, must fill the Hearts of your People with Joy and Gladness, being assured of a firm and full Enjoyment of their Religion, Liberties and Properties under your Majesty's Administration.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere Loyalty, Fidelity and Obedience, of our hearty Affection for the Constitution in Church and State, the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House; and that we will adhere to and assist your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes against all Pretenders and Opposers, whatsoever; and in Testimony thereof, we have hereunto subscribed our Names, and affixed the common Seal of this your Majesty's very ancient and loyal Corporation.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgesses and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful Subjects of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Drogheda, humbly beg Leave to express the just Sense we have of the great Loss of their late most gracious Sovereign your Royal Father; and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to offer your Majesty the humble Assurances of their Duty, Fidelity and Affection to your sacred Person and Government.

As the Experience those Nations have had of your Majesty's great Wisdom, Justice and Clemency in Government, gave them the most reasonable Hopes and Expectations, so your Majesty's publick and most gracious Declaration claration gives us the utmost Assurance of the full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights during your Reign; and we doubt not but your numerous Issue will continue those Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, to latest Posterity.

This happy Prospect fills our Hearts with inexpressible Joy, and as it claims the most publick Acknowledgments from all your Subjects, we beg Leave in the most solemn Manner to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready, on all Occasions, to venture our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majesty's undoubted Title, and the Succession to the Crown in your Royal and most illustrious Family: And we heartily pray, that no other Distinction may be found among your Majesty's Subjects, than of those who shall contribute with most Zeal to the Support of your Majesty's Government, and to make your Reign as easy and glorious to your Majesty, as we are sure to find it prosperous and happy to your People.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our common Seal, this 14th of July 1727.

The following humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, and the rest of the ancient Corporation of Southwold, in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Betts, Esq; High-Steward, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your faithful Subjects, humbly presume to approach your Sacred Majesty's Presence, and desire Leave to condole with you upon the Death of your Royal Father; and also to congratulate you upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms. It is with the highest Pleasure and Satisfaction we read your Declaration, and Speech from the Throne; and that we hear from all Parts the universal Joys and Acclamations of your Subjects for your happy Accession. We humbly and heartily assure your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, stand by your Majesty and all your Royal Family: And we earnestly pray, that your Reign may be long over us, and that your Days may be entirely happy; and you, and your Royal Off-spring, may rule the Kingdom of Great Britain until Time shall be no more.

Given under our Common Seal, this 16th Day of July, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesse, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Falmouth their Recorder, and Edward Vernon, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late gracious Sovereign your Royal Father;

Whose Loss only can be repaired to us by your Majesty's peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors:

And that your Reign may be long and prosperous, shall be the constant and fervent Prayers of,

Your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Ross, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders convened in the Presbytery of Paisley.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Paisley, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it was with the greatest Joy we received the happy News of your ascending the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; as we offer our heartiest Praises to Heaven, that this great Event was no more attended with ours, than with the loud and joyful Acclamations of all your good Subjects.

Great Sir, this is the only thing on Earth that could have supported our Minds under that heaviest Load of Grief which the Death of your Royal Father brought upon us, a King for ever of blessed Memory to all true Protestants, but especially to the Church of Scotland; and indeed, if any Comfort below the Sun, except your Majesty's immediate and peaceable Accession to the Throne, were sufficient to relieve us from that Sorrow, we might be justly accounted Men void of Sense and Gratitude; for did not Righteousness and Abundance of Peace flourish in his Day? Yet though the Ornaments of his Government were many, and all of them great, if greater Measures of Glory can shine in any Reign

In this World, we rejoyce in the Hope that these by the King of Heaven are reserved for your's.

Your Majesty has already given us the best Ground for this Hope, by your wise Conduct and Goodness, when the Administration was before in your Princely Hands; That and the late Expressions of your Majesty's great and affectionate Designs to make your People happy in your Love and Royal Care, must fill them with the greatest Prospect and Thankfulness. This, Sir, is the Influence which your early Regard to the Laws shall ever have on us, who are Part of that Church which is so devoted to your Family and Government, that in Defence of both they reckon no earthly Thing too dear or dangerous.

We adore the Divine Goodness for the great Blessing bestowed upon your Majesty in your Royal Consort the Queen. How well prepar'd to be a nursing Mother to the Church of Christ must a Princess be, who in her tender Age itself, when the World's Arguments are strongest, did for her Religion defy all its Temptations! Blessed be God, who shews her Majesty the happy Effects of the Christian Faith and Patience, by raising her to share in the Glories of your Crown, of all on Earth the most useful to God and Mankind. We rejoyce in your Majesty's Royal Off-spring, and that already the bright Virtues of his Royal Parents are coming fast to a remarkable Maturity in his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

That God may long preserve your Majesty to reign happily over us and all your Dominions, that He may pour down His richest Blessings on our gracious Queen; and eminently bless his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Issue; and for ever maintain the Succession to your Crown in your Royal Protestant Family, is, and shall while our Breath remains, be the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most humble Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Paisley.

Signed in our Presence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Neil Campbell, Moderator.

By the King,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty, and of His Royal Consort the Queen:

WH E R E A S by Our Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twelfth Day of August last, We did (amongst other Things) Publish and Declare Our Royal Intention to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, and of the Coronation of Our most dearly beloved Consort the Queen, upon Wednesday the Fourth Day of Octob; next, at our Palace at Westminster: And whereas for divers weighty Reasons, thereunto moving us; We have thought fit to adjourn the said Solemnity to Wednesday the Eleventh Day of the said Month of October; on which Day We have resolved, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the same at Our said Palace at Westminster; We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give Notice of and publish our Resolution therein. And We do hereby further signify to all Our loving Subjects whom it may concern, That all Persons, of what Rank or Quality soever they be, who either upon Our Letters to them directed, or by Reason of their Offices or Tenures, or otherwise, are to do any Service at the Time of such Coronation, are discharged from their Attendance on Wednesday the said Fourth Day of October. And Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all such Persons, that they do duely give their Attendance at the said Solemnity on Wednesday the Eleventh Day of October next, in all Respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the Dignities and Places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils, unless upon special Reasons by Our Self under Our own Sign Manual to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their Services or Attendances.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the 20th Day of September 1727 in the First Year of Our Reign.

God Save the KING.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having this Day thought fit to dissolve the Privy Council, and at the same Time to appoint a new one, all the Lords and others present were thereupon sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty was then pleased to declare his Grace William Duke of Devonshire Lord President of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

Edward Southwell, James Vernon, Robert Hales, and Temple Stanyan, Esqrs. were at the same Time, by His Majesty's Command, sworn Clerks of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary.

As were likewise Walter Carey, Thomas Gteenwood, and William Sharpe, Esqrs. Clerks in Extraordinary.

Kennington, September 21.

This Morning the King went from hence to Northall Common, where the Regiments of Horse commanded by the Duke of Bolton, Lord Viscount Cobham, and Lieutenant General Wade, passed in Review before His Majesty, and made a very fine Appearance: In the Afternoon His Majesty returned hither.

THESE are to give Notice to all the Peeresses that are to attend in the Royal Proceeding to their Majesties Coronation on the fifth of October next, That the Robe or Mantle of a Baroness is to be of Crimson Velvet, the Cape whereof to be Furr'd with Meniver pure, and Powdered with two Bars or Rows of Ermine, the said Mantle to be edged round with Meniver pure two Inches in Breadth, and the Train to be three Foot on the Ground; her Coronet to be according to her Degree, viz. a Rim or Circle with six Pearls upon the same, not raised upon Points. That the Robe or Mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the Cape powder'd with two Rows and a half of Ermine, the Edging of the Mantle two Inches, as before, and the Train a Yard and a Quarter; her Coronet to be according to her Degree, viz. a Rim or Circle with Pearls thereon, Sixteen in Number, and not raised upon Points. That the Mantle of a Countess be as before, only the Cape powder'd with three Rows of Ermine, the Edging three Inches in Breadth, and the Train a Yard and a half; her Coronet to be composed of eight Pearls raised upon Points or Rays, with small Leaves between above the Rim. That the Mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the Cape powder'd with three Rows and a half of Ermine, the Edging four Inches in Breadth, the Train a Yard and three Quarters; her Coronet to be composed of four Leaves and four Pearls raised upon Points of the same Height as the Leaves, alternately, above the Rim. And that the Mantle of a Dutchess be as before, only the Cape powder'd with four Rows of Ermine, the Edging five Inches broad, the Train two Yards; her Coronet to be composed of eight Leaves, all of equal Height, above the Rim. The Surcoats or Kirtles to be all of Crimson Velvet, close bodied, and clasped before, edged or bordered with Meniver pure two Inches broad, and scallop'd down the Sides from below the Girdle, and sloped away into a Train proportionable to the Length of the Robe or Mantle for each Degree, viz. about a third Part thereof; the Sleeves of the Surcoats also to be of Crimson Velvet, about five Inches deep, scallop'd at the Bottom, edged with Meniver pure, and fringed with Gold or Silver. The Caps of their Coronets to be all of Crimson Velvet turned up with Ermine, with a Button and Tassel of Gold or Silver on the Top suitable to the Fringe of their Sleeves. The Petticoats to be of Cloth of Silver, or any other white Stuff, either laced or embroidered, ac-ording to each Person's Fancy. The Mantles to hang back, being fastened on each Shoulder with Cordons of Silver or Gold suitable to their Fringe, with Tassels of the same hanging on each Side down the Waste. The Surcoats or Kirtles to open before, that the Petticoats may appear. And it is likewise His Majesty's Pleasure, that all and every the Peers and Peereesses who shall attend the said Coronation, do forbear to set or use any Jewels or precious Stones in their Coronets. And whereas Coachmakers, Carvers, Embroiderers, Painters, Silversmiths, and other Artificers, do presume (both upon Coaches and in making the Coronets for this present Coronation) to raise the Pearls of the Barons and Baronesses Coronets upon Pins or Spikes, (whereas they ought to be flat upon the Rim or Ring of the Coronet): This is to warn all such Workmen from the like Error, and to enjoyn and order them to take care to make all such Coronets exactly as they are allowed to be worn by the Grant from King Charles the Second, of blessed Memory, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils.

And it is also ordered, That no Person whatsoever shall presume to print or publish any Account or Relation of the said Coronation, Ceremonial, or any Part thereof, without my Licence.
