St. James's, November 12.

THE following Address having been transmitted, by the Lords Justices of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Roscomon, at an Assize held in and for the said County, the 17th of August 1727.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AS the Loss of your Royal Father our late gracious Sovereign, of ever blessed Memory, must fill the Hearts of all your loyal Subjects with the deepest Concern and Sorrow; the Blessing bestowed upon us by your Majesty's peaceable and happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, not only alleviates that Sorrow, but fills our Hearts with inexpressible Joy.

Your early Declaration of pursuing the Steps of your Royal Father, and fulfilling such Engagements as he had entered into to secure the Trade and Tranquility of the British Empire; your Choice of a wise and able Ministry; leave us no Doubt but that those of this Nation will receive an equal Benefit with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, both in their civil and religious Rights.

Give us Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we in this Kingdom have on all Occasions distinguished ourselves in our Zeal for the Succession in your illustrious Family, and are sensible it must be our own Fault if we are not the happiest People under so gracious a Sovereign, blessed with a Royal Consort, the Glory and Ornament of her Sex; we will on all Occasions readily sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes to support and defend your Majesty against all your open and secret Enemies.

That your Majesty may long reign over us, and that the British Throne may never want a Successor from your Royal Line to secure to latest Times the Felicity of the present, shall be ever our sincere and constant Prayers.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th Day of November 1727.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased by Letters Patents under the Great Seal to appoint the Right Honourable Algernon Earl of Hertford, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Suffex; and the Right Honourable Henry Earl of Thomond to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Essex; their Lordships this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.
