From Saturday January 27. to Tuesday January 30. 1727.

St. James's, January 30.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Assembly of the Island Antigua.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Assembly of your Majesty's Island Antigua, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign. So great, so diffusive were the Blessings of his Reign, that even we his far distant Subjects were ample Partakers of them; and we should be inconsolable, did we not see them continued to us in your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; upon which we humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our most sincere Congratulations.

What Hopes can the Enemies of the Protestant Religion entertain, when they see your Majesty on the Throne, who so early distinguished yourself a Defender of it? Or what Pretences can the Agents of a baffled Pretender find out, when they reflect on the Wisdom and Mildness of your Government, your Conduct and Constancy in War and Peace?

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall in our several Stations endeavour so to act, as always to deserve the Continuance of your Majesty's Favour and Protection, by steadily persevering in Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government.

May the King of Kings pour down His Blessings on your Majesty and your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen; may your Reign be long and happy; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Issue to bless succeeding Generations.
