St. James's, February 6.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Clergy of Virginia.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

A MIDST the Condolances of your good Subjects at Home, for the Death of your Royal Father, of glorious Memory, and their Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Succession to the Throne, permit us your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of Virginia (one of your Majesty's most Ancient and Loyal Colonies) to joyn with our Brethren of the Church of England, particularly with our Right Reverend Diocesan the Lord Bishop of London, in performing the Duties incumbent upon us on so solemn an Occasion.

Though we have great Reason to lament the Loss of our late glorious King, who with so much Wisdom, Resolution and good Conduct, attended with Success equal to his well-concerted Counsels, supported the Protestant Interest, and maintained the Peace and Balance of Europe; yet when we consider that he died in a good old Age, full of Glory and Honour, and left his Kingdoms and Dominions to a Successour, from whose bright Example, while a Subject, we have no less Reason to hope not only for a Continuance of the same happy Days in Church and State, but for an Addition of all further Felicity that is likely to attend a great King, happy in so excellent a Queen; so hopeful and flourishing an Issue of well educated Princes and Princesses; but above all, in the Hearts of his Subjects, which were never more firmly united than in their Affections to your Majesty's Person and Government: When we seriously consider all these Things, we find much more Reason for Congratulation than Condolance. And therefore, as we heartily adore the Divine Providence in the present Situation of Affairs, and are thankful to Almighty God for such inestimable Benefits; so we shall not fail to instruct the People committed to our Care in the Duties of Loyalty and Obedience to so gracious a Sovereign; and to pray to God to bless your Majesty with a long and prosperous Reign here upon Earth, and at last with a Crown of Glory in Heaven; and with a Succession of Princes in your illustrious Family while Sun and Moon endure.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Stephen Poyntz, Esq; to be one of his Ambassadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries at the Congress which is intended to be held at Cambray.

Thomas Pelham, Esq; to be Secretary of the said Embassy at Cambray.

On Thursday the 22d Instant, will be exposed to Sale in the Long Room in the Custom-House, London, Sugar-Co's from Barbadoes, and the Leeward Islands.

A General Meeting of Trustees for amending the Turnpike Roads in the Counties of Surrey and Sussex, is appointed to be held on Friday the 16th Day of February Instant, at Ten in the Forenoon, at the King's Arms Tavern in Southwark.

London;

London, Jan. 23, 1727.

The Committee of the Common Council lately appointed to employ six Persons, and to give proper Orders and Directions for the setting up His Majesty's Statue at the Royal Exchange, do hereby give Notice, that they intend to sit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 14th Day of February next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, in order to receive Draughts and Proposals from such Statuaries who are willing to agree with the said Committee for making and setting up the same.
