The great Lofs we fuftained by the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign, your Majefty's Royal Father, is by this amply repaired to us, and the repeated Aflurances your Majefty has been pleased to give us of your tender Regard to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, which shall always take Place with you of all other Confiderations, as they call for our most thankful and dutiful Acknowledgments; to will they oblige us never to be wanting in our Returns of all that Fidelity and Obedience, which fo Gracious a Prince may justly expect, or a grateful l'eople can possibly pay. The Bishops and Clergy of the Church of England mult, with the deepest Sense of your Majefty's Goodnels, acknowledge your fingular Favour to them, in the Declarations you have been pleafed to make, that the Prefers vation of the Conftitution in Church and State, as it is now happily eftablished, shall be your first, and always your chief Care : Next to that Effablishment which the Laws have given them, we cannot have a better, Security for both, than the Promife of a Prince, whole Stedfastness to his Word has always made a diffinguishing Part of his Character. Your Majefty's early Concern for the Glo-ry of God, and the Encouragement of Reli-gion and Morality, expressed in your publick Declarations of your Resolution to be careful, above all other Things, to preferve and advance the Honour and Service of Almighty. God, and to difcourage and fupprels all Vice, Profanenels, Debauchery, and Immorality; and for that end to diftinguish, upon all Occa-fions, Persons of Piety and Virtue, by Marks of your Royal Favour, calls for our most hearty Thanks to your Majesty: A Declaration for worthy of your Majesty's Piety and Goodness, if it has the Influence it ought to have on the Lives and Practice of your Subjects, will be the most effectual Means to draw down the Bleffing of God upon your Royal Perfon and Government, and to make your Reign prof-perous to your Majeffy, and your People ; and your folemn Command to all your. Officers, both Ecclefiaffical and Civil, to be ftrict and vigilant in the Discovery and effectual Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons, who thall be guilty of Blasphemy and Profanenes, or of other diffolute, immoral, or diforderly Practices, will, we truft, in Time, put a Stop to that Spirit of Irreligion, and open Con-tempt of all Things facred, which (notwith-ftanding the Care and Diligence of the Go-vernment for fome Years paft, in profecuting vicious picious Practices, and the Publishers of leud. vrofane, and blafphemous Books) doth still prevail among us, and is no lefs dangerous to the prefent Peace and Tranquility of your Government, than it is difpleafing to Al-mighty God, and deftructive to the Souls of Men. It will be your Majefty's Honour, the Glory of your Reign, to put a Stop to these bold and impious Attempts ; and by making us a virtuous and religious, to render us a happy and flourishing Nation.

[ Price Two-Pence. ]

The bright Examples which shine forth in your Royal Family, and frike the Hearts of your Subjects with Love and Admiration, cunnot but add the greateft Weight to your Majefty's good Delires and Endeavours; whilit they observe, with the highest Satisfaction, that what your Majeity requires of your People, is in Effect to follow the Examples of that Piety in their own Conduct, which they there behold with fo much Pleafure and Veneration.

We beg Leave to affure your Majefty, that we will, in our leveral Stations, employ our utmost Endeavours to excite all those who are committed to our Charge, to be zealous in their Duty to God, and Loyalty to your Majefty. And as we are fecure of your Ma-jefty's Care and Conern for the Welfare of your l'eople, to exhort them with all Earnestness, by a constant and conscientious Obedience to your Majesty, and a quiet and peaceable Behaviour towards one another, to contribute what in them lies to make your Reign happy; their highest Interest, as well as Duty.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction that we congratulate your Majesty upon the Hope you have been pleafed to communicate to your Parliament, that your Endeavours to put an End to the Troubles and Diforders of Europe, by a general Pacification, are likely to meet with the defired Success : This will render your Majefty ftill more honoured abroad, and beloved at home.

May the good God profper all your Ma-jefty's Endeavours for the publick Welfare, and give your Subjects fuch a true Senfe of the Bleffings they enjoy under your Government, that they may be as zealous by their Unanimity and Vigour, to make your Ma-jefty a great and glorious Prince, as your Majefty is, by your tender and paternal Care, to make them a flourishing and happy People.

His Majefty's most Gracious Answer.

THIS publick Testimony of your Duty and Fidelity, and the sealous Concern you express for the Support and Honour of my Government, are very acceptable to me : And you may be affured, that I shall always main-tain the Conjutution of the Church of England, as by Law established; and shall be ready to do my Part towards a vigourous Execution of the Laws against Blasphemy, Profanenefs, and Immorality.
