St. James's, April 16.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by John St. Lo, Esq; (late Commander of His Majesty's Ship Ludlow Castle) introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Torrington; which his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Captain and Officers of His Majesty Ship Ludlow Castle, and the Fishing Admirals and Commanders in the Harbour of Placentia, and those in the several Harbours and Islands on the Southern Coasts of Newfoundland, together with the principal Inhabitants thereof.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, most heartily condole your Majesty on the Death of our late Sovereign (your Royal Father of glorious Memory); at this Juncture cannot sufficiently express the Happiness we shall enjoy in a succeeding Monarch, endowed with such excellent Perfections, which (with much Satisfaction we profess) fills the Hearts of all true Britons with Joy, Transport and Admiration.

May your Majesty and Royal Consort long live to reign over us, and continue to encrease your Royal Family for the Happiness of your People, and for the Maintenance and Support of our Laws, Religion, and true Virtue.

The Fishery being no small Branch of the publick Revenue, we shall with the utmost

Care and Pains endeavour to encrease it; and as some Parts of the said Fishery have been considerably improved of late Years, we humbly beg your Majesty's Protection; and though we are not equal in Capacity to the most powerful of your Majesty's Subjects, yet in Duty, Loyalty and Affection, we shall bear up to none: This, Sir, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, and most submissively declare ourselves, with the utmost sincerity,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.
