O Paris, February 12, N. S.
N the 10th Instant the Count de Plelo set out from hence on his Embassy to Denmark, as will shortly the Marquels de Monti for the Court of the King of Poland. The Lotteries which are to be drawn Monthly for the Payment of the Annuities upon the Town-Houle, gain great Credit ; and that of this Month exceeds the last by 25000 Livres. The Marchioness de Chatillon is dead, as is likewise Father Truchet, a Monk of the great Convent of Carnes, and honorary Sub-Dean of the Royal Academy of Sciences.

Whitehall, February 8.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant His Conge d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, for electing the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. Robert Clavering Lord Bishop of Landaff to the See of Peterborough, vacant by the Death of Dr. White Kennet.

Whitehall, Jan. 24, 1728-9.

Whereas by an Inquisition taken at Walkerne, in the County of Hertford, the 23d Day of December last, before the Coroner for the said County, on the View of the Body of Thomas Addams, Jun. Gent. it has been found, that the said Thomas Addams was, on Saturday Night then last past, about Six or Seven of the Clock, murdered and robbed in Bonnington Fields, in the said County, by being shot into the Right Papp, some Inches into his Body, with a small Gun loaded with Bullets, as 'twas supposed by the Wound : His Majesty, for the Discovery of so heinous a Crime, is graciously pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices therein concerned (except the Person by whom the said Murder was committed) who shall discover the rest of those Criminals, so as they be apprehended and convicted.

TOWNSHEND.

Thomas Addams of Walkerne, in the said County of Hertford, Father of the Deceased, does hereby promise the Reward of Forty Pounds to such Person who shall make such Discovery as is above mentioned ; to be paid at his House in Walkerne, or at the Earl of Essex's in St. James's Square.

Thomas Addams.

Whitehall, February 4, 1728-9.

Whereas the Tynshop of Anne Markham, under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, was lately broke open and robb'd of several Goods wrought in Gold and Silver, to the Value of about Two Hundred Pounds : His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleas'd to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals who shall discover his Accomplices, so as they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE,

BATLIS MAYOR.

Martis Quarto die Februarii, 1728. Annoque Regni Regis GEORGII Secundo, Magnæ Britannia, &c. Secundo.

WHEREAS Complaint hath been made to this Court, That great Numbers of loose and disorderly Persons do often assemble themselves at the Place and Times of Execution of the Condemned Malefactors, and that the proper Officers appointed to attend such Executions are frequently Insulted and Molested in the Performance of their Duty : And that the said Officers who are ordered to assist the Persons appointed by the Company of Barbers and Surgeons in carrying a Dead Body of the Malefactors to their Hall to be Dissected, according to the Act of Parliament, for the Instruction of the Members of the said Company in the Science of Anatomy, are frequently Abused and Insulted, and are sometimes prevented from carrying away such Dead Body, as aforesaid. This Court doth therefore order, That the Under-Sheriff of Middlesex, and the Officers of the Two Compters, who are to attend to see the Execution performed, do take Special Care to prevent any such Disturbances and Insults : And that they assist the Officers of the said Company of Barbers and Surgeons in carrying away the Dead Bodies to their Hall. And that if any Person or Persons do in any manner Oppose or Hinder the carrying away any such Body, That the said Officers do seize and apprehend such Person or Persons and carry him or them before a Magistrate, to be dealt with according to Law. And if any Persons, to the Number of Twelve or more, shall Obstruct or Hinder the said Officers in their Duty, That then the Under-Sheriff of Middlesex shall read the Proclamation in the Act of the First of King George the First, to disperse such disorderly Persons. And if they continue together in such disorderly manner for the Space of an Hour after such Proclamation, That then the said Officers do apprehend such Offenders, and carry them before some Magistrate, to be dealt with according to Law. And it is further ordered, That this Order be printed and published in some of the Publick News-Papers, and affixed at Newgate, the Place of Execution, and other publick Places within this City and Liberties thereof.

JACKSON.

Custom-House, London, Feb. 3, 1728.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, &c.

The Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of this City having on a Petition of the Merchants and others, issued an Order dated the 14th of last Month, for putting in Execution An Act of Common-Council for regulating the Exchange Hours, whereby it is directed that the Time for Merchants and all others meeting there, shall be from Twelve o'Clock at Noon till Two of the same Day. And it being directed by the 18th Rule in the Book of Rates, that the Officers who sit above Stairs in the Custom-House shall attend the Service of their several Places from Nine to Twelve of the Clock in the Forenoon :

The Commissioners have on this Occasion repeated their Orders to the said Officers to give due Attendance accordingly for the Dispatch of Business, and all Merchants and others concerned are desired to take Notice thereof.
