Westminster, March 24.
THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Charles Dalton, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land-Tax, to be raised in Great-Britain for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Nine.

An Act for raising the Sum of One Million Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds, by Sale of Annuities to the Bank of England after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and for applying the Produce of the Sinking Fund.

An Act for making good the Loss occasioned by a Sum of Money being stolen out of His Majesty's Exchequer in the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Four.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

An Act for repairing the Roads leading from Cannalls Gate to the City of Litchfield, and from the said City to Stone, and from thence to the End of the County of Stafford, in the Post Road towards Chester, and also from the Town of Burton upon Trent to the said City of Litchfield, and from thence to Wood End and Ogley Hay, and also from the said City of Litchfield to High Bridge in the County of Stafford, and the County of the said City of Litchfield.

And to Five Private Bills.

Paris, March 30, N. S. It is advised from Venice, that Mr. Law, formerly Comptroller-General of France, is dead in that City. It is said the Queen will reside at Marly during the King's intended Residence at Compiègne, whither His Majesty will be going the 18th of next Month. Yesterday his most Christian Majesty was at the Opera which is performed in this Town. The Marquess de Pelleve, Governour of Meudon, lies dangerously ill. The Abbot de Courtenay, Brother to the Prince of that Name, died last Week. The Abbot de St. Jal, named to the Bishoprick of Uzez, is in daily Expectation of his Bulls, after which he is to be consecrated by the Archbishop of Rouen.

Advertisement concerning the STATE TRIALS in Four Volumes in Folio.

* * The said Work having been for some Time out of Print, and advanced to near double the Price it was at first sold at, the Proprietors give Notice, that they intend shortly to print Proposals for a second Edition, to which a FIFTH VOLUME will be added, containing not only all the Trials, &c. which happened during the Reign of the late King GEORGE, but also such as came not to their Hand till after the Publication of the said Work, and which in Order of Time should have been inserted in that Collection. And as 'tis designed to print an overplus Number of the Fifth Volume, for the Sake of those who bought the first Edition, so the Proprietors hope that if any Gentleman is possess'd of any Trial, &c. which was omitted in that Collection, or can communicate any Thing which may be useful to the Work, he'll be so kind as to transmit the same to any one of the following Persons, and his Favour shall be thankfully acknowledged; to wit, John Walthoe, Sen. in the Temple, Jacob Tonson in the Strand, John Darby in Bartholomew-Closet, William Innys in St. Paul's Church-yard, John Walthoe, Jun. in Cornhill, Thomas Wotton in Fleet-street, and Thomas Osborn in Grey's-Inn.

Wine-Licence-Office, March 15. 1728.

His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Duty arising from Wine Licences give Notice, that constant Attendance is given at their Office in Surry Street in the Strand, for the Dispatch of the Business thereof, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays in the Forenoon, Holidays excepted. And whereas His Majesty's said Commissioners for managing the said Revenue have received certain Information of divers Persons presuming to retail Wine without Licence, and to whom Letters have been sent advertising them of the Penalties incurred thereby; these are also to give Notice, that unless such Persons do speedily apply themselves to the Commissioners, the Laws in such Cases made and provided will be forthwith put in Execution.
