By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For suppressing Riots and Tumults committed by Tinnors, and others, within the County of Cornwall, and for apprehending the Offenders therein.

GEORGE R.

Whereas a Representation hath been made unto Our Principal Secretaries of State by divers Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, of Our County of Cornwall, assembled extraordinarily upon Occasion of certain Riots and great Disorders committed by the Tinnors, and others, within Our said County, That of late the said Tinnors, and divers other Persons, within Our said County, have ravaged up and down the Country in a very insolent Manner, and in great Numbers, who have presumed to break open, and enter Dwelling Houses and Out-houses, out of which they have forcibly taken and carried off great Quantities of Corn, and other Things, the Properties of Our good Subjects; and humbly desiring that some Order might be taken therein, equal to the said Mischief and Outrage: And whereas the Justices and Gentlemen aforesaid have, in their said Representation, transmitted the Names of certain Persons therein and herein after mentioned, as being notorious Offenders in the Premises; and have also given the strongest Assurances, that they the said Justices and Gentlemen are fully resolved, to the utmost of their Power, to maintain the Peace of Our said County by all the Ways and Means possible: Now, We being firmly determined to give all due Encouragement and Assistance to the dutiful and commendable Resolutions and Endeavours of the Justices and Gentlemen aforesaid, and being desirous, for the Security of the Persons and Properties of Our good Subjects, and the Preservation of the publick

Peace, that the said Offenders may be brought to Justice, and the like Riots and Disorders be prevented for the future; have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby strictly commanding and requiring all Our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, and Under-Sheriffs, and all other Our Civil Officers whatsoever, that they do use their utmost Endeavours for discovering and apprehending the Offenders herein after mentioned, who are particularly named in the said Representation (that is to say) James Saim, James Sparga, Richard Rapsy, John Rapsy, Anthony Sandon junior, Anthony Stodden, Thomas Towsey, Thomas Towsey junior, John Harvey, alias Goodboy, Absalom Veal, and Philip Roberts, all of the Parish of Kenwyn in the said County of Cornwall; Tumblyn, of the Parish of Saint Agnes in the same County; William Rosevear, William Trewin, and John Jeffery, all of the Parish of Saint Ewe, in the same County; Stephen Trewin, and Thomas Harris alias Kittoe, of the Parish of Saint Mewan in the same County; and also all other Persons, who have been, or shall be guilty of, or in any wise concerned in such riotous and dangerous Practices, to the End that they may be brought to Justice. And We do hereby promise and declare, that if any Person concerned in any of the said Riots or Tumults, shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any Two or more of the Persons concerned therein, so as they may be convicted of such Offence, such Discoverer shall have Our most Gracious Pardon: And as a further Encouragement to the Discoverers of such notorious Offenders, We do also hereby promise and declare, that any Person or Persons, who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any of the Persons herein before particularly named, shall have and receive ceive for every such Offender discovered and apprehended, so as he may be convicted of such Offence, the Sum of Forty Pounds; which Sum the Commissioners of Our Treasury, or Our High Treasurer, of Great Britain for the time being, are hereby directed and required, from Time to Time, to pay accordingly, without any further or other Warrant in that Behalf. And we do hereby further strictly charge and command all Our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and other Officers aforesaid, that they do use the most effectual Means for suppressing all Riots and Tumults; and to that End do effectually put in Execution an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of the Reign of our late Royal Father of Glorious Memory [entituled, An Act for preventing Tumults and riotous Assemblies, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the Rioters] and all other Laws and Statutes made against Riots, Routs, and unlawful Assemblies; and that the said Justices, and all other our Civil Officers, to whom it doth appertain, do give the necessary Directions, that sufficient Watch and Ward be duly kept at such Times and Places, as they shall judge necessary for the preventing and suppressing the like Disorders. And we do hereby further strictly charge and command all our Officers, Civil and Military, and all other our loving Subjects, that they be aiding and assisting in the Execution of Our Commands herein, and in the apprehending and taking the Persons above-named, and all other Persons, who have offended, or shall hereafter offend in manner aforesaid. And we do hereby charge and command, that the said Offenders be prosecuted with the utmost Severity and Rigour of Law, We being resolved to suppress such Riots and Tumults by a most strict and exemplary Punishment of all such Offenders, as have been already, or shall be discovered. And we do hereby command the respective Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates aforesaid, that they do from Time to Time transmit an exact Account of what they shall do pursuant to this Our Royal Proclamation, to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twentieth Sixth Day of March, in the Second Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.
