Hanover, June 14, N. S.

THE King, who continues to enjoy a perfect Health, has lately made several Promotions amongst the Officers of his German Troops, whereof 18 Squadrons and 12 Battalions are to assemble shortly in the Neighbourhood of this City, in order to be reviewed by His Majesty. Last Saturday in the Afternoon His Majesty took the Air at Herrenhausen, and did the same the Day following. Yesterday about Noon His Majesty removed from this City to Herrenhausen, where he intends to reside the rest of the Summer. He has taken up there the same Apartments the late King had; and besides His Majesty's Table, there are two other great Tables kept at Court. A great many Strangers are already arrived here to pay their Court to His Majesty, and amongst others, two young Counts of Ottingen. Yesterday Count Dehn, who has resided some Time in England on the Part of the Duke of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttel, arrived here from London, and was introduced this Morning to the King at Herrenhausen. Brigadier Sutton having obtained His Majesty's Leave to make a Tour hither from Wolfenbuttel, is expected here to Night or to Morrow.

Whitehall, June 9.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable the Earl of Kinnoul His Ambassador to reside at the Court of the Grand Signior]

Admiralty Office, June 10, 1729

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being informed that several Seamen have taken an unjustifiable Liberty of absenting themselves from the Ships of the Fleet whereto they belong, and straggling up to Town; Their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that if the Men who have or do absent themselves do not repair on board the respective Ships wherunto they belong by the 20th Day of this Month, they will be taken up and prosecuted as Deserters with the utmost Severity; but that such of them as do return to their Duty by the aforesaid Time, shall not be punished for their Desertion.

By Command of their Lordships, J. Burchett

Stamp-Office, June 6, 1729.

Whereas by a Clause in an Act of last Session of Parliament, to revive the Laws therein mentioned, It is enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the 24th of June 1729, sell Brandy or other distilled Liquors by Retail, to be drank in his, her, or their House, or Houses, but such Persons only as shall be thereunto licensed and allowed, in the same Manner as common Alehouse Keepers; and every Person or Persons so selling Brandy or other distilled Liquors by Retail, as aforesaid, shall be subject to such Rules Penalties and Forfeitures, as common Alehouse Keepers now are for selling Drink without Licence. The Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Duties, to prevent the Retailers of Brandy or other distilled Liquors incurring the Penalty for selling such Liquors without Licence, do give this publick Notice.

[Price Two Pence.]
