THIS Court being informed, that of late Years at the usual Season of Resort at Tunbridge-Wells in this County, several unlawful Games called Fairchance, Faro and Ace of Hearts, and other unlawful Games, contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, are there carried on, exercised and supported, and several Persons attend to support the same who are not known to have any other visible Way of Living, to the great Disturbance and Damage of His Majesty's good Subjects resorting to and frequenting the said Wells

Wells for their Health, or other lawful Occasions: For preventing which Mischiefs and Disorders, and suppressing of the said unlawful Games for the future, it is thought fit and ordered by this Court, that it be recommended to the several Justices of Peace of this County of the Division wherein Tunbridge Wells lie, or who shall be there residing, to assemble and meet together as often as there shall be occasion, and to take and use such lawful means as may be most effectual for preventing any of the said unlawful Games at the Places aforesaid, or any Riots or Routs occasioned thereby; and the Constables, Bortholders, and other Peace-Officers of the Parish of Spelaburff, and other Parishes in this County where Tunbridge Wells, or the Houses or Buildings thereunto adjoining is or are situate, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting to the said Justices of Peace, as they and every of them will answer the contrary at their Peril. Whitehall, May 2, 1729.

Whereas on Friday the 11th Day of April last, about nine a Clock at Night, William Pearce, a Tidesman in the Port of London, going by Water from Whitehall Straits towards London Bridge, three Persons unknown, in Disguise, their Faces appearing black, as if covered with Grape, and the Brims of their Hats pulled down over them, come in a Wherry alongside the Boat he was in, and having asked his Name, which he told them, they laid hold of him, and endeavoured to pull him out of the Boat, in order, as it most probable, to have drowned him, but were prevented by other Boats which happening to pass by at the same Time, came to his Assistance. And whereas from the Expressions used by the said Persons in Disguise, there is the greatest Reason to believe, that they mistook the said William Pearce for Thomas Pearce, another Tidesman, resembling him in Face and Stature, whom they intended to murder, in Revenge for the great Service he has done in detecting and convicting several Persons guilty of very notorious Frauds, to the Prejudice of His Majesty's Revenue, and of the fair Merchants, in stealing and running Tobacco and other Goods, who have thereupon been brought to condign Punishment. His Majesty for the better Discovery of an Attempt so barbarous and inhuman, and so highly criminal, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, who shall discover his Accomplices, so as they be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall make the said Discovery, payable by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, on the Conviction of one or more of the said Offenders.
