

Denver, and this morning early embarked on several small Vessels for Antwerp, in order to their return for Holland; the other Holland Regiments that were sent by the States into our service have likewise Orders to return home, and are said to be already on their march. We talk here of 2000 Horse his Excellency sending into the service of the said States, and that the Regiments are accordingly nominated, and may in a day or two begin their march towards those Provinces.

Ditto, May 31. By Letters of the 27 instant from Cologne we have advice, that several of the French Troops were passed the Rhine near Keyserwaert, and are marched towards Munster; That the Prince of Conde is on his march towards Nuis, and that his most Christian Majesty is likewise very suddenly expected there with the Gros of the Army, great preparations being made for his reception; That the Elector of Cologne intends to meet his Majesty there with a very great and Splendid Train, and that the Duke of Newburgh was likewise on his way to salute his Majesty, when arrived in those parts. From Luxemburgh they tell us, That the 24 instant his Grace the Duke of Monmouth passed with his Regiment by Thionville towards Cologne. We hear of several skirmishes that daily happen between the French Troops and those of Maestricht, and that the Marquis de Soubes being some days since Commanded with a party of Horse to attack one of the Guards at Maestricht, charged them with so much bravery, that he entered the Barrier, but being at last much overpowered with numbers, and wounded in the Throat, was taken prisoner, most of his party having been either killed or taken. All the Dutch Troops which were some time since sent by the States-General into the service of these Provinces, are with his Excellencies leave returned home again, where it is thought they will have more occasion to employ them. From Holland they tell us, that his Highness the Prince of Orange was marched with an Army of 30000 Men towards Westphalia, to hinder if possible the joining the Forces of that Bishop with the French. That the States Deputies have been at Hulft, and the parts thereabouts, in order to the raising of every tenth Man, according to the order of the States, but that they met with so great opposition therein amongst the Countrey People, that they have been forced to desist from executing their Commission as so that particular.

Paris, May 28. From the Camp near Vifer (in which place the Regiments of Auvergne and de la Ferte are at present in Garrison) we have this particular account of his Majestys march. The 10 instant his Majesty ordered all his Baggage with a sufficient Convoy to part from Charteroy, and the next day followed himself, being accompanied by the Duke of Orleans, with all his Troops, who marched in three Bodies as well on this as on the other side of the Sambre, and afterwards joining again, came and lodged that night at Tongres, where his Majesty was presently after his arrival complimented by Don Franzisco Agosta on the part of the Count of Montreux, Governour of Flanders; The 12 they continued their march towards Piroué, two Leagues and a half from Tongres, where his Majesty encamped. The same day the Viscount Turenne arrived with his Forces at Luden, where he stayed all the next day; the 13 the Kings Army parted from Piroué about 4 in the morning, and at 9 arrived at Brancon, being three Leagues; from whence the Count de Chamilly was sent with a Body of Horse and Foot to take possession of Maseyck, a place belonging to the Prince of Liege, between Maestricht and Kuremond;

The 14 his Majesty in the head of his Troops which were divided into four Bodies, of which the Baggage made one, marched to Grand Hach, where they encamped upon a large Plain, two Leagues and a half from Brancon; the same day the Viscount Turenne, accompanied with the Count de Soissons, marched towards Maseyck; the same day likewise the Sieur de Beauvais arrived at Brancon, with two Brigades of Horse and four Battalies of Foot, of the Prince of Conde's Army, having passed on the other side of the Meuse; the 15 the Count de Lorge was ordered to goe with 3000 Horse and encamp within a League of Maestricht, and the Count de Chamilly having taken possession of Maseyck, was commanded to remain there, in order to the better fortifying of the place, it being resolved that 2000 men should be left in Garrison there; the 16 the Army removed from Grand Hach, and marched to Freere, 4 Leagues, where 20 Companies of Rambure's Regiment had been in Garrison since the 14 instant, at the instance of the Elector of Cologne, in order to the securing the place from the insolencies of the Hollanders; the same day arrived at Tongres 80 Waggons laden with Corn, which had been bought up in the parts about Vifer; the 17 the King encamped with his Army in the Great Valey near Vifer afore said, all along and beyond the Meuse, where his Majesty was upon his arrival saluted with all the Guns from the Fort of Navaigne, belonging to the Spaniards on the other side of the Meuse; the same day the Viscount Turenne arrived likewise there, having passed with the Forces under his Command within a quarter of a League of Maestricht; the 19 the Prince of Conde arrived also with his Army, and the same day the Grand Arch deacon of Liege with several of the Canons, deputed by the Chapter, came to Compliment his Majesty upon his arrival in those parts; The 23 the Troops began to march, and the 27 his Majesty intends to remove with the main of his Army from Vifer in order to his march towards Nuis, it being thought there may be some intention first, to besiege Orfoy, Rhynebergh, &c. places on the Rhine. By a Courier arrived from Rome we have advice, that the 16 instant the Pope declared the promotion of the Bishop of Lyon, and Father Nithard Archbishop of Edesa, to the Cardinalate. From Marseilles we have advice, that our Gallies have taken a Dutch Convoy of 35 Guns, and pursued two others.

Swansey, May 20. By several Vessels arrived here Saturday and Sunday last from many parts of the Coasts of England; we have advice of several Dutch Privateers that infest the coasts, not without doing mischief daily.

Southwold, May 22. Yesterday about six in the Evening his Royal Highness with His Majesties Fleet, appeared standing in for this Bay, the Wind then at S W, and at ten of the Clock came to an Anchor about four Leagues off.

Chester, May 22. We are told of a small Dutch Privateer that lies now cruising in our Channel, and that he hath taken a small Vessel belonging to Belfast, coming from Rosen, though afterwards released her again, as being scarce worth his keeping.

Boston, May 22. We hear of several Pickarcons upon our coasts, one of them on Friday last took a light Collier going to Sunderland from hence; and chased two others altho.

Lim, May 22. Yesterday arrived here 17 Colliers belonging to this place, who tell us, that a Dutch Caper of four Guns fell in with them off of Humber, but was chased off by some of the Fleet that had Guns.

Languard, May 26. Yesterday a Dutch Privateer took a Collier within sight of this place.

London, May 26. Last night between 11 & 12 a clock, broke out a sudden & violent Fire in the house of one that sells Tobacco at Strongwater, at the Irongate near the Tower, occasioned by the carelessness of a Maid Servant, which by the speedy and effectual Orders given by His Majesty, and the great application of the Lord Mayor and several persons of quality, who were there by His Majesties Command, was after some hours by the Blessing of God happily stopp'd, though not without having done considerable mischief.
