From Tuesday August 5. to Saturday August 9. 1729.

Whitehall, August 8.

ON the 5th Instant arrived here Mr. Sharpe one of His Majesty's Messengers from Madrid, but last from Paris, with Letters from Mr. Keene, His Majesty's Minister at the Court of Spain, dated at Port St. Mary's the 2d of August N. S. inclosing the Draught of a Treaty for adjusting Matters between the Allies of Hanover and the Crown of Spain, as it had been concerted between the Ministers of the Allies and those of that Crown; which is sent to the Courts of England and France and to the States General for their Approbation. In the mean Time the King of Spain's Orders were issued on the 28th of July N. S. for the delivering out the Effects brought from the West-Indies on board the Galleons to their respective Proprietors; and the Cedula desired by Mr. Keene in behalf of the South-Sea Company, were to be given in Eight Days from the Date of Mr. Keene's Letter, which Time it would require to prepare and pass them through the several Offices.
