Whitechappel Court-House, Oct. 7, 1729

Lower-Division.

WHEREAS it was published in the Coffee-House-Morning Post of the 24th of September last, that a Gentleman well skill'd in the Management of a Theatre, is obtaining Letters Patents to erect one in Ayliffe-street in Goodmans-Fields, by Way of Subscription, and that the Undertaking meets with a general Approbation. And also by an Advertisement published in the Daily Post of the 30th of the same Month, it appears that only seven or eight Persons have applied to the Justices against erecting the said Theatre, but that there has been no Meeting about it. These are therefore to certify, that the erecting the said Theatre is so far from meeting with a general Approbation; that great Numbers of Gentlemen and substantial Merchants and Tradesmen residing in and near the said Street, have applied to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting for the Division of the Tower, at several Meetings appointed for that Purpose, and set forth to them the evil Consequences that will necessarily attend the carrying on such a Design. The Justices present at those Meetings were so thoroughly convinced, that the erecting the said Theatre so near several publick Offices, and the Thames, where so much Business is negotiated and carried on for the Support of Trade and Navigation, will draw away Tradesmens Servants and others from their lawful Callings, and corrupt their Manners, and also occasion great Numbers of loose, idle, and disorderly Persons, as Street Robbers, and common Night Walkers, so to infest the Streets, that it will be very dangerous for His Majesty's Subjects to pass the same, have already ordered Caveats to be entred in the proper Offices, to prevent the Gentlemen obtaining Letters Patents for erecting the said Theatre, and are resolved to the utmost of their Power, to shew their Disapprobation of the same, by doing every lawful Act they can to prevent so great a Mischief.

Sign'd by Order,
Sam. Cowper, } Clerks to the Justices of the Peace and } at their special and petty Sessions
Sam. Sadleir, } held for the said Division.
