

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 14. to Saturday October 18. 1729.

Paris, October 22, N. S.

ON the 15th the Queen was churched with the usual Ceremonies, The same Day the King reviewed near Marly Beringhen's Regiment of Horse. On the 18th the Venetian Ambassadour had a publick Audience, to take Leave of his most Christian Majesty, the Queen, and the Children of France. The same Day the Spanish Ambassadours had private Audiences to compliment their most Christian Majesties on the Birth of the Dauphin; as had likewise the Marquels de Rangoni, Envoy Extraordinary of the Duke of Modena. The Parliaments of France have written Letters of Congratulation to the King upon the Birth of the Dauphin, instead of sending Deputations as was formerly practiced, which the King has been pleased to dispense with.

Hague, Oct. 21, N. S. The Chevalier Offorio, who has resided here for several Years as Minister from the King of Sardinia, having had his Audience of Leave of the States General, will set out To-morrow for Turin; from whence he is to go to England, his Master having already appointed him as Minister there; he is to be succeeded here by Count Cujane, who it is said will have the Character of Envoy from his Sardinian Majesty. Admiral Perez and Sig. Toledano, Ministers from the Emperour of Morocco to the States General, are arrived in these Provinces, and are daily expected here; it is said that they come with the Characters of Ambassadors. Yesterday the States General received an Expres from the Texel with Advice that Admiral Somersdyck was arrived from Spithead with the Ships under his Command belonging to this Republick. This Day Brigadier Sutton went to Rotterdam to embark for England in one of His Majesty's Yachts.

Kensington, October 12.

Yesterday M. Reichenback, Resident from the King of Prussia, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke.

And this Day he had a private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia, Caroline, Mary and Louisa; to all which Audiences he was conducted by John Inglis, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Kensington, October 14.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the 10th of this Instant, should be further prorogued to Thursday the 20th Day of November next.

Whereas the Steeple of the Great Church at Ostend was burnt down in the Year 1712, and is now rebuilt, the Brick Work whereof is 75 Feet above the Body of the Church, and from thence raised by Wood-Work 50 Feet, which makes a considerable Alteration in the Appearance of the Town, when first seen at Sea; to prevent Misfortunes thereby, all seafaring Men are desired to take Notice hereof, as likewise all Persons who shall print Charts or Draughts of the Coast of Flanders.

Ostend the 30th of September 1729.

John Deane, Consul.
