led a Britannia; and the proper Marks for Gold Work, and also for old Sterling Plate, being a Leopard's Head crowned, and a Lyon passant. The said Company being desirous carefully to discharge the Trust reposed in them, and to prevent (as much as in them lies) all Frauds and Abules in the said Trade, have thought fit bereby to caution all his Majesty's Subjects from buying any Wares of Gold or Silver that have not some of the said Marks stampt thereon, (if capable of bearing the same.) And they advise all Buyers strictly to inspect all Plate, and see that the Marks are not sodered thereinto, or counterfeited, both which are Frauds, and fomewhat difficult to be discovered.
