Dublin, February 25.

THIS Day the House of Commons of this Kingdom, attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant at the Castle, with the following humble Address, to be transmitted to England, in order to be laid before His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Conclusion of an absolute Peace with Spain; a Peace, which we doubt not, through your Majesty's Goodness, to reap the Benefit of in common with the rest of your Subjects: The more we think of the Miseries of a War (at best uncertain in its Event) the more we are led to admire your Majesty's Wisdom, in obtaining for us the Blessings of Peace, and the Increase of Trade, and Riches the Consequence thereof.

As we have had, through the whole Course of your Majesty's Reign, many and great Instances of your Goodness towards us, we cannot omit on this Occasion, to return you our most sincere and hearty Thanks for your constant and unwearied Care for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects.

Under the Government of so good a Prince, we shall endeavour to make ourselves an happy People, by taking all Opportunities of approving ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Hague, March 14, N. S. It is expected the States of the Province of Holland will on the 16th Instant dispose of the Military Employments of their Repartition that are vacant. The Preparations for the intended Encampment in the Neighbourhood of Nimeguen, are carried on with Diligence, a great Number of Tents having been already made for the Officers and Soldiers, and all the Officers are ordered to repair to their respective Regiments by the 25th of this Month. Some Companies of Swiss are to come hither, to serve in the Room of the Foot Guards, who are to march to the Encampment, as are also the Horse-Guards, who are to be relieved by some Troops of Dragoons. Captain Schryver, who lately arrived in the Texel from the Mediterranean, with the three Men of War under his Command, has been nominated to return to Algiers with two Men of War, and with the Prefets from the States General to that Government. Instructions are drawing up for M. de Ginkel, who 'tis said is to set out forthwith for Berlin.

This Day Sir Charles Hotham, Bart. set out by His Majesty's Order for the Court of Berlin.

General Post Office, March 3, 1729.

Whereas the Post Boy in carrying the Bristol Mail of Saturday last from London, was set upon and robbed by a Single Person on Foot, about Four o'Clock on Sunday morning, betwixt Knightsbridge and Kensington. The Postmaster-General thinks proper to make it publicly known, that whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon his Conviction be entitled to a Reward of Two hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any one Accomplice in the said Robbery shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two hundred Pounds, and also have the King's most Gracious Pardon,

The Person who committed this Robbery is described to be a lusty Man in a dark coloured Riding Coat: He carried away all the Bags of the Mail upon the Post Horse, which was taken up in Long-acre as a Stray sometime after the Robbery.

Navy-

Navy-Office, March 6, 1729.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of July 1729, to the 31st of December last, according to His late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; these are to give Notice, That the said Payments will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning of the following Days, viz. On Monday the 23d Instant for the Captains, Tuesday the 24th for the Lieutenants, and on Thursday the 26th for Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them; and not only bring with them the Affidavits required, touching their not having enjoy'd the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed the Test, and taken the Oaths required by the Act of Parliament to his present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
