Dublin, April 15.

To his Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave, before you put an End to this Session, to congratulate your Excellency upon the near Prospect of its happy Conclusion, and to return our sincere and hearty Thanks, for the great Regard you have shewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, in the whole Course of your just and wise Administration.

The Experience we had of your great Abilities, and of the perfect Knowledge you had acquired of the true State of this Kingdom, could not but give us the fullest Assurance of his Majesty's gracious Intentions to his People of Ireland, in continuing your Excellency in this Government: Nor had we the least doubt at the opening of this Session, but that by your faithful Representations of our Duty and Loyalty, and of the properest Measures to promote the real Interest of this Nation, the best Foundations would be laid to improve, and in Time carry it on to the greatest Height.

And we already see the Effects of his Majesty's Goodness, and of your Zeal for his Service, and for the Welfare of his People, by the many useful Bills transmitted from Great Britain for the Support and Honour of the Establishment, the Relief of the Distressed, the Employment of the Poor, Increase of Tillage, and Improvement of the Trade and Inland Navigation of the Kingdom: Nor can we omit with the utmost Gratitude, to acknowledge that his Royal Bounty hath prevented even our Desires, by remitting Part of his hereditary Revenue to encourage the Industrious, and make us Sharers in the Advantages of the Woollen Manufactures.

These Things must transmit this your third Session distinguished to Posterity; fill us with the highest Esteem and Affection for your Person; and make us still more sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your just and mild and prudent Administration.

And as the Lords have cheerfully concurred in all Measures for the Honour and Support of his Majesty's Government, and for the Peace and Quiet of his People, we promise ourselves from your known Justice and Goodness, that you will continue to represent to his Majesty that Fidelity in which we glory, and that Zeal for the Good and Service of our Country, which we know are equally acceptable to him; and to assure his Majesty, that we always shall endeavour to preserve amongst the People, a just Sense of the Blessings of his gracious Government.

To which Address his Excellency was pleased to make this Answer, viz.

I shall always remember the obliging Manner in which your Lordships express your Satisfaction in my Endeavours for his Majesty's Service, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

THE Commons of Ireland cannot see an End put to this Session, without acknowledging, in the most grateful Manner, the Advantages which this Nation hath received under the Influences of your Excellency's Government.

The many good Laws which passed in the two preceeding Sessions, and those which are now ready for the Royal Assent, will be so many Monuments to Posterity of your wise Administration; and we shall ever remember, that you held that Parliament wherein his Majesty was graciously pleased to consent to the Appropriation of a proper Fund for encouraging the Tillage, employing the Poor, and improving the Trade of this Kingdom.

The Commons conceive great Hopes that these Marks of his Majesty's Goodness will raise in us a new Spirit of Industry, and be attended with the mutual Advantage of Great Britain and Ireland.

We do, with the greatest Pleasure, congratulate your Excellency on that singular Instance of Confidence reposed in you by his Majesty, and his late Royal Father (of Glorious Memory) in committing the Govern-
