Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 28. to Saturday May 2. 1730.

Hague, May 9, N. S.

THE States of the Province of Holland are to assemble To-morrow. A Deputation from the Province of Zealand arrived here Yesterday, as did likewise the Directors of the West-India Company; and in all Likelyhood something will be determined concerning the Trade to Africa before the Assembly breaks up. The Envoy from Sweden delivered this Morning to the States the King his Master's Letter of Notification of the Death of the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, and afterwards notified the same in Form, by his Secretary, to all the foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction here.

Dublin-Castle, April 22.

The 20th Instant his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, embarked for England; upon which Occasion the Foot Forces on Duty here lined the Streets, and his Excellency was attended by the Dragoon Forces likewise on Duty, together with the Battle-Axe Guards and Officers of State to the Water-Side; to which Place his Excellency was accompanied by a great Number of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction. And this Day his Grace the Lord Primate, the Lord Chancellor, and the Speaker of the House of Commons, were sworn in Council as Lords Justices of this Kingdom.

St. James's, April 28.

This Day the following Petition was presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of London.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Petition of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London.

Humbly Sheweth,

THAT there having been lately erected a Play-House in a Place called Goodman's Fields, near adjoining to the said City, (but not within their Jurisdiction) and admitt great Numbers of Persons concerned in Trade, and particularly in the Silk, Woollen, and other Manufactures.

And your Petitioners having Reason to be apprehensive of very many ill Consequences from the Continuance of the said Play-House, and the Representations perform'd in the same, more especially as affecting the Morals, lessening the Industry, and losing the Time of those Persons employ'd in the said Manufactures, which, if not prevented, may prove to be of very great Prejudice to the Trade of this City.

And as the Actors of the said Play-House pretend to act by Authority;

Your Petitioners most humbly apply to your Majesty (with a full Assurance of your most gracious Disposition towards the Trade, Welfare and Prosperity of this City) to give such Orders for the suppressing an Evil of so dangerous a Consequence, as to your Majesty in your great Wisdom shall seem meet.

Signed by Order of the said Court,
JACKSON.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

YOUR Care and Concern for the Trade of the City, and the Welfare of your Fellow Citizens, is very much to be commended; and you may depend upon my complying with what you, with so much Reason and Justice, desire of me upon this Occasion.

St. James's, May 2.

On Thursday last his Excellency the Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, arrived here; and Yesterday waited upon their Majesties, by whom he was very graciously received.

Whitehall, April 23, 1730.

Whereas Advertisements were inserted in the Gazettes of the 11th, 14th, and 18th Instant, in the Words following, viz.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint Benjamin Keene, Arthur Stert, and John Goddard, Esqrs. His Commissaries, to treat with those who are, or shall be named by His Catholick Majesty, concerning such Matters as by the Treaty of Seville are referred to the Examination, Discussion and Decision of Commissaries to be appointed for that Purpose by His Majesty and by the King of Spain; Notice is hereby given thereof, that the Merchants and others who have any Claims to be laid before the said Commissaries, may forthwith bring them to the Office of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, with the necessary Proofs and Vouchers to justify the same, that they may be delivered to the said Commissaries.

Now Notice is hereby further given, That their Lordships will be ready to receive the said Claims, with their Proofs and Vouchers, authenticated in such Manner as the Claimants shall judge convenient, on Tuesdays and Fridays, from Eleven till Two of the Clock.

By Order of their Lordships,
Alured Popple.

The Bishop of London's First Pastoral Letter.

Whereas John Duff of Colbin has, for sundry just and necessary Causes, found it proper to withdraw himself from the Company Trade and Copartnership, wherein he was lately engaged with Patrick Mackay of Scowrie, and William Mackay junior, his Brother, both Merchants in Inveness: These are therefore advertising all and sundry whom it may concern, that they give no Credit to the said Patrick and William Mackays, or either of them, on the Faith of the said Copartnership; for that the said John Duff will be no further bound for any of their Acts or Deeds: And that those who are Debtors to the Company, or are possessors of the Company's Effects, make no Payment of any of the said Debts, or deliver any of the Company's Effects to the said Patrick or William Mackays, without the said John Duff's special Warrant or Consent. And whereas the said John Duff is an entire Stranger to the Debts and Deeds of the said Company, the Affairs of it having been managed by the other Partners; These are therefore requesting all and sundry the Creditors of the said Company, to give in their Claims to Bailie James Gordon of Ellon, Merchant in Edinburgh, to the end the same may be settled, and the Balances satisfied and paid, at the Sight of the said James Gordon and Mr. James Graham of Airth Advocate, and any other Person or Persons that the said Creditors shall think fit to name and appoint, without loss of Time, and without Trouble or Expence to either Party. And whereas the said Mr. Patrick Mackay, one of the Partners, who now is or lately was at London in the Service of the Company, has discontinued any Correspondence with the said John Duff for some Posts: These are therefore desiring the said Patrick Mackay to signify where he is, and inviting him, with all possible Expedition, to return to Edinburgh, and concur with the said John Duff to settle the Affairs of the Company, in as far as he the said Patrick is capable so to do; and upon his complying therewith the said John Duff hereby promises to protect the Person of him the said Patrick, against any Demands by the Creditors of the said Company; Under this Certification, that upon the said Patrick's Neglect or Refusal to conform himself to the above Invitation upon or before the Fifteenth Day of May next to come, he will be prosecuted according to Law.
