

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 7. to Tuesday November 10. 1730.

Paris; November 11, N. S.

Yesterday being the Anniverfary of the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, his Excellency the Earl of Waldegrave, His Majesty's Ambaffadour at this Court, gave a magnificent Entertainment to a great Number of English on that joyful Occafion.

Hague, Nov. 14, N. S. The 10th being the Anniverfary of the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, his Excellency the Earl of Chefterfield, His Majesty's Ambaffadour here, gave a magnificent Entertainment to all the publick Minifters, and many other Perfons of Diftinction: The Prince of Naffau-Frifeland, who arrived here the Night before, was prefent at the Feaft, with the chief of his Retinue. A Treaty of Peace has been agreed upon with Admiral Perez, between the States General and the Emperor of Morocco; and the Dutch Slaves in Morocco, who are 32 in Number, are to be redeemed at the Price of 300 Crowns each. Yesterday came Advice by the Way of Vienna, of an Infurrection of the Janizaries at Conftantinople, who after having caufed the Grand Vifir, the Captain Bafhaw or Admiral, and others of the principal Officers of that Court to be put to Death, depofed the Grand Signior Achmet, and placed on the Throne his Nephew Machmut, Son of the former Sultan Muftapha. Captain Schryver has made his Report to the States of his Proceedings in relation to the two Eaft India Ships taken and releafed fome Months ago by the Algerines, and their High Mightineffes have approved his Conduct. At the fame Time he delivered the Prefent fent by the Dey to the States, being two Horfes and a very rich Saddle. The Marquefs de Fenelon is foon expected, to refide here in the Room of M. de la Baune, as Ambaffadour from the Court of France, the States Passport for his Equipage and Baggage having been tranfmitted to him fome Days ago. We are expecting daily the two Ambaffadours of this State who are returning from Paris, a Yacht having been fent to receive them at Ghent.

St. James's, November 7.

This Day M. de Thom, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Brunwick Lunenburg Wolfembuttel, had his firft private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Mafter of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Mafter of the Ceremonies,

Whitehall, Nov. 7, 1730.

Whereas the Right Honourable the Lady Diana Feilding, did, on the 29th Day of October laft paft, receive a Letter by the Penny-Post, figned Tho. of the Welt, threatening to deftroy her Ladyfhip's Park, and make fuch a Bonfire therein as has not been feen before; For the better difcovering and bringing to Juftice the Perfons concerned in fending the Threats aforefaid, His Majesty is pleafed to promife his moft gracious Pardon to any one of them, who fhall difcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, fo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, I do hereby promife a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perfon who fhall difcover the Author or Authors of the Letter above-mentioned, or any one concerned therein, to be paid upon Conviction of the Perfon or Perfons fo concerned.

Di. Feilding.

And whereas I am equally concerned in the Confequences of the deteftable Threatnings contained in the above-mentioned Letter, I do therefore, for the better difcovering and bringing to Juftice the Author or Authors of the fame, promife the Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by me upon Conviction as aforefaid.

Dudley and Ward.

Windfor Caftle, Oct. 12, 1730.

Whereas in the Month of September laft feveral Letters were fent to Mr. George Packer, of the City of Bristol, Merchant, and one to his Sisters who lived in his Houfe, requiring that a certain Sum of Money fhould be left in particular Places defcribed in the faid Letters, threatening, if the fame were not complied with, to murder them, and to burn his Houfe, and accordingly on Saturday the 3d of October Inftant, about Twelve of the Clock at Night, his faid Houfe was fet on Fire, and entirely confumed, whereby the Ships at the Key and the whole City were in great Danger of being alfo fet on Fire; and fince the burning of the faid Houfe, two Letters have been conveyed to the faid Mr. Packer, threatening, if he did not leave a larger Sum of Money at a Place appointed, to murder him and his Sisters, to burn every Houfe he fhould live in, and that the City before it were long, fhould be all in Flames: For the better difcovering and bringing to Juftice the Perfons concerned in a Crime of fo high a Nature, and attended with fo much Barbarity and Villany, His Majesty is pleafed to promife His moft gracious Pardon to any one of them, who fhall difcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, fo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and alfo a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to fuch Perfon, or to any other Perfon or Perfons making fuch Difcovery as aforefaid, payable upon the Conviction of fuch Offender or Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Bristol, October 19, 1730.

And as a further Encouragement to fuch Difcovery, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bristol, do hereby promife, That whoever fhall difcover the Perfon or Perfons who fent, or contrived or directed the fending the faid Letters, or any of them, or was of

