And we strictly charge and command, that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County-Towns of Scotland, Twenty five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty first Day of December, 1730, in the Fourth Year of Our Reign.

God Save the KING.

Moscow, Dec. 10. Her Czarish Majesty has had a slight Indisposition, but is at present entirely recovered of it. Yesterday M. de Westphalen, Envoy Extraordinary from Denmark, had an Audience of her Czarish Majesty, at which he imparted to her the Death of the late King his Master, and the Prince Royal of Denmark's Accession to the Throne; and at the same Time delivered to her Imperial Majesty a Letter from the present King on those Occasions. The Court will go into Mourning for six Weeks for the Death of the said Prince. This Day will be celebrated at the Palace the Festival of St. Andrew, and all the Knights of that Order are invited in the Evening to a splendid Entertainment.

Warsaw,
