Hampton-Court, July 5.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Yonge, Recorder of the Town of Tiverton in Devon. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Burgesses, Assistants, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Tiverton in Devon, being deeply sensible of your Majesty's great Grace and Favour to us, do most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept of our most hearty Thanks for your Majesty's Royal and most munificent Bounty, vouchsafed to the Poor Sufferers by Fire in this Town.

As your Majesty's whole Reign has been a continued Act of Goodness to your People, so has it in no Case more distinguished itself, than in the compassionate Regard which your Majesty has always expressed for their Misfortunes; as if your Majesty thought your own Felicity incomplete, whilst any, even the meanest of your Subjects, were unhappy.

Your Majesty's gracious Condescension to pity and relieve us in our present Distress, is such an Instance of your Majesty's tender Concern for and Love of your People, as must fill our Hearts with the utmost Gratitude: But since the only Return we can possibly make is that of Duty and Loyalty to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government; we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Expressions of it, shall, as much as in us lies, be answerable upon every Occasion to the Greatness of the Obligations we are under.

May your Majesty long enjoy a peaceful and happy Reign over us, is, and shall be, the constant Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful
Subjects and Servants.
