Publiched by Authority,

From Eucloap October 12. to Saturday October 16. 1731.

Dublin; October 2.

Efterday the Regiment of Horfe commanded by Major-General Naper, and the three Regiments of Foot now on Duty here, were re-viewed in His Majefty's Park the Phœnix near this City, by his Grace the Lord Lieu-tenant, attended by the General Officers; her Grace the Dutchels of Dorfet, and a great Number of Perfons of Quality and Difinction of both Sexes being prefent. The Regiments made a very handlome Appearance, and performed every Part of their Exercife with the utmost Exactness; and the Foot went through all their different Firings with the greatest Regularity. After which, his Grace returned on Horfeback from the Park to the Castle, attended by the General Officers and others, where a most magnificent Entertainment was prepared by his Grace, at which were prefent all the Generals and Field Officers then in Dublin, with many other Perfons of Diffinction ; and her Grace had a Drawing Room at Night for the Ladies.

Dublin, October 7. On Tuesday the 5th Instant the Parliament having met according to the Prorogation, his Grace the Lord-Lieutenant went in State to the Houle of Peers, and being feated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, his Grace fent for the Commons, and made a Speech to both Houses, who unanimously refolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to his Majesty, which were this Day presented to his Grace.

[Price Three Pence.]

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Should be far from deferving the high Station in which his Majesty hath placed me, and ill answer his Royal Intentions, if I did not meet you here with the warmest Heart and strongest Inclination, to do every thing in my Power that may contribute to the Honour, Welfare, and Intereft of this his Kingdom. And I have taken, and shall take every Opportunity of giving the most folid Proofs of my Zeal for your Service.

The experienced Loyalty of this Parlia: ment leaves me no room to doubt, but that all your Confultations will be carried on with that Duty, Temper, and Unanimity, which alone can make them fuccessful : And I have it in Command from his Majesty to allure you, that you cannot do him a more acceptable Service, than the preparing the Heads of such Bills as may tend to continue, increafe and establish your own Happiness and Profperity.

I shall leave it to your Confideration, whether any farther Laws may be neceffary to prevent the Growth of Popery, and to to prevent the Growth or Popery, and to fecure you againft all Dangers from the great Number of Papifts in this Kingdom. You will likewife confider, what farther Encouragement may be given to the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures; Branches of Trade, which not only employ the Poor, and may in time leften their Number, but by your conftant Attention to them under his Majesty's Favour and Protection, (on which you may entirely depend) will prove a great and undifputed Source of Riches to this Countre

At the fame time, I have it in Charge to recommend to you the finding out fome more effectual Methods, to prevent the illegal Exportation of Wooll into. Foreign Parts. This pernicious Practice, is highly injurious to the Trade and Manufacture, of Great Britain, and of no real Advantage to your felves. In its Confequences, it very much encourages the clandeftine Running of Goods, to the great Diminution of the publick Revenue, and to the Ruin and Deftruction of the honeft and fair Trader.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

It is with Concern, that I find fo great a Deficiency in the publick Revenues. I have directed the proper Officers to lay before you the Eftimates and Accounts in the plaineft and cleareft Manner. And I doubt not but you will chearfully and most effectually make the neceffary Provision for the Debt due to the Eftablishment, and for the Support of his Majeffy's Government, under which, your own Interest and Happines, Religion and Liberties, can alone be fecure,

You may be affured that I shall take the utmost Care, that the Supplies shall not only be most frugally applied to the Purpoles for which they are intended; but that they shall, as much as is possible, be spent amongst your felves. To which End, I can now with Certainty acquaint you, that his Majesty hath been pleased to order two of the Regiments upon this Establishment, in Service abroad, to be immediately brought back to this Kingdom ! And, from the happy Circumitances of Affairs in Europe, I have the greatest Reason to hope that the other will soon be recalled.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is a great Satisfaction to me to be able, at my first meeting you in Parliament, to acquaint you, that from the just Success with which the Wildom of his Majesty's Councils and Negociations hath been attended, we have now the most reasonable Expectations of enjoying all the Advantages and Blessings of a general Peace, which, by the Increase it will bring to your Trade, and the Encouragement it will give to your Manufactures, must neceffarily contribute to the Removal of these Difficulties you at prefent labour under. His Majesty in his great Goodness' contri-

Subjects happy; and, in his tender Concern for this Kingdom, defires nothing more earneftly, than to fee you in that Condition. And I fhall efteem it my greateft Honour to obey his Majefty's Commands in concurring with you in every thing that may beft promote that End; and the Accomplifhment of it will be the greateft Satisfaction I can poffibly receive from my Adminifiration.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament affembled.

May it please your Majesty,

W E your Majeffy's moft dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament allembled, beg Leave to return our moft humble Thanks to your Majefty, for those gracious Expressions we have received from the Throne, of your tender Concern and earness Define for the Happinels of this your Kingdom; and for "the Affurance given us, that we cannot do any thing more acceptable to your Majefty, than the preparing the Heads of fuch Bills" as may tend to continue, increase, and establish that Happinels.

And we take this Opportunity to congratulate your Majefty on the juft Succefs which hath attended the Wifdom of your Councils and Negociations, whereby we have the moft reafonable Expectations of a general Peace ; which by the Increafe it will bring to our Trade, and the Encouragement it will give to our Manufactures, under your Majefty's Favour and Protection, must neceffarily contribute to the Removal of those Difficulties we at prefent labour under, and to the Accomplifhment of your Majefty's gracious Defires and Defigns towards us.

We can in grateful Return, only give your Majefty the Arongeft and most fincere Alfurances of our inviolable Duty and Affection to your. Majefty and your Royal Houle; and of our steady Resolution to make use of the Opportunity your Majesty hath put into our Hands, by the happy Circumstances of Affairs in Europe, to promote the Prosperity of your Subjects, and the Security of your Government.

ragement it will give to your Manufactures, mult neceffarily contribute to the Removal of these Difficulties you'at prefent labour under. His Majefty in his great Goodnefs' confiders it as his higheft Glory, to make all his Expor-

Exportation of Wooll, and clandsifine Run- he will take every Opportunity to promote ning of Goods, which tend to the Diminution of the publick Revenues, and to the Ruin and Destruction of the fair Trader; and to ftop the further Growth of Popery, and fecure an against all Dangers from the Num-bers and Infolence of the Papists in this Kingdom.

Your Majefty's good Subjects of Ireland, who must want that Happinels which attends your immediate Prelence, cannot but express scheir most sensible Acknowledgments of your Majesty's extensive Goodness, in committing their Affairs into the Hands of his Grace the Duke of Dorlet; whole known and approved Character leaves us no Room to doubt, but what in Obedience to your Royal Commands, the will justly represent your Majesty, in continuing to do every thing in his Power that may contribute to the Honour, Welfare and Interest of this your Majesty's Kingdom.

Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects shave nothing more or greater to add, than their most zealous Wishes and Prayers, that your Majesty may long enjoy your true and addited Glory in the Prosperity of your People, under your most just and gracious Administration, and that our latest Posterity may have the fame Happiness transmitted to shem, under Princes of your Majefty's Illultrious and Royal Family.

En. Sterne, Cler' Parliament'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and affectionate Address to His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Majesty, VI E your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament allembled, with Hearts justly lenfible of your Majesty's great Goodness to us, during the whole Course of your Reign, do on this Occasion most gratefully acknowledge your Royal Favour in committing the Government of this Kingdomy to his Grace the Duke of Dorfet, of whole fincere Inclinations for our Profperity, we are fully convinced, and whole great Honour and reminent Abilities in discharging the Duty of the highest Stations, leave us no room to doubt that your Majefty's Service, and the Interest and Prosperity of this Nation.

As we hope that our former Conduct hath been agreeable to your Majesty, we allure your Majesty, that we shall, in all our Confultations, endeavour to express that Dury and Affection to your facred Perfon, and that Zeal for your Service and the publick Welfare, which may merit the Continuance of your Royal Approbation.

The great Number of Papifts in Ireland, must at all Times justly alarm your loyal Protestant Subjects; and we shall use our best Endeavours to prevent all Dangers which may arife from them to your Majefty's Government, or the Peace of this Kingdom.

As we are fenfible that the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures are the most valuable Branches of our Trade, and ablolutely necelfary to the Support of this Kingdom, we shall confider of all proper Methods to carry on and encrease them, and do with the greatest Gratitude acknowledge the Encouragement given by your Majesty to those Manufactures, and in promoting them, depend entirely on your Royal Protection.

We think our Interest inseparable from that of Great Britain, and fhall endeavour, by all Methods in our Power, to prevent the clandeftine Exportation of Wooll into Fo-reign Parts, to prejudicial to the Trade of that Kingdom; and at the fame Time con-fider of the beft Means for the fuppreffing all fraudulent Practices that tend to the Diminution of your Majesty's Revenue, and the Destruction of the fair Trader.

We allure your Majesty, that (as far as we are able in our present Circumstances) we shall grant fuch Supplies as may effectually provide for the Debt of the Nation; and from the just Sense we have that our Interest, Happinels, Religion and Liberties depend entirely on the Effablishment of the Crown in your Majefty and your Royal Houfe, chearfully support your Government with Ho+ nour.

We most gratefully acknowledge your Majefty's great Goodness in taking the prefent Condition of this Kingdom into your Royal Confideration, and ordering Home two of the Regiments upon this Eftablifhment, now in Service Abroad ; and we with the utmost Confidence affure ourselves, that as foon as the Situation of Affairs will permit, you will be gracioufly pleafed to direct the other to be recalled.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty on the near Prospect of a general Peace, owing, owing, under the Divine Providence, to the Wildom of your Majesty's Councils, the just Success of your Negotiations, and your Royal Concern for the Liberties and Repose of Europe; and we return your Majefty our most humble Thanks for your paternal Care to promote, on all Occafions, the Happinels and Prosperity of all your Subjects, and particularly those of this Kingdom.

Bruen Worthington Sch. Parl. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will, by the first Opportunity, transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorfer, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament affembled,

May it please your Grace, W E the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament affembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Grace our most hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houses of Parliament.

It is with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction that we lee your Grace placed over this Kingdom ; and we effeem it a fignal Instance of His Majesty's tender Care of us, that he has made Choice of a Perfon of your Grace's Wildom and Goodnels, as well as Zeal for the Protestant Religion, and hearty. Affection to his Majesty and his Royal Family, to entrust with the Government of this Nation.

We cannot fufficiently express our Gratitude for that Warmth of Heart and strong Inclination you bring with you, to promote the Honour, Welfare and Interest of this Kingdom ; and the many Benefits we have already received under your Grace's Administration, give us the strongest Assurance of all future Advantages from the Continuance of your Government,

And we hope our well-known and most fincere Loyalty to his Majesty, will always dispose us to carry on our Confultations for His Honour and the Good of our Country, with that Duty, Temper and Unanimity, which are the most effectual Methods to render them fuccefsful, and to make your Grace's Administration eafy.

We most thankfully own our Obligations to your Grace, for the great Encouragement you give us from his Majesty, to confider what new Laws may be most likely to continue, encrease and establish our own Happinels and Prosperity.

If any Thing be still wanting in our Laws, to prevent the Growth of Popery, and to fecure us against all Dangers from the great Number and Infolence of Papifts in this Kingdom, it will now be our own Fault, if those Desects are not supplied.

The Advantages we at prefent receive, and the greater we may hereafter hope for, from our Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, are fo truly laid before us by your Grace ; and the Aflurances you give us of his Majesty's Favour and Protection in carrying them on, are fo full, that we shall be left without Excule, if we neglect to give every Encouragement in our Power, to those valuable Branches of our Trade.

And we fhall, in purfuance of your Grace's Recommendation, fhew our Readiness to prevent the illegal Exportation of Wooll to Foreign Parts, which is fo much to the Prejudice of Great Britain, without any real Advantage to ourfelves, by chearfully concurring in any Laws that may be thought proper to prevent fo pernicious a Practice.

We beg Leave to fhare with your Grace, in that Satisfaction you express at the just Succefs with which the Wildom of his Majefty's Councils and Negotiations has been attended, which gives us the Prospect of a general Peace; fo great a Bleffing cannot but bring an Encrease to our Trade, and make our Manufactures flourish, which must gradually remove those Difficulties we at prefent labour under.

It is to us of this Nation a fenfible Benefit arifing from the happy Circumstances of Affairs in Europe, that two of the Regiments on this Establishment, now abroad, are ordered Home ; and we doubt not, but as foon as the State of Affairs will permit, his Majefty will be gracioufly pleafed, through your Grace's good Offices, to recall the other Regiment.

The Experience we have already had of his Majefty's most mild and gracious Go-vernment, fully convinces us, that his Majefty has a tender Concern for this Kingdom, and earnestly defires to make all his Subjects happy.

And

And it is with the utmost Pleasure and Acknowledgment, that we receive your Grace's Assurances, that you shall esteem it your greatest Honour, in Obedience to his Majesty's Commands, to concur in every thing that may beft promote our Happiness; and we shall make it our Endeavour, that your Administration may procure you the great Satisfaction you propole to your felf from so generous a View.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

THE obliging Manner in which your Lord-Ships express yourselves to me, lays me un-der the strongest Engagements to continue my Endeavours for the Good of this Kingdom, and to deferve your Esteem, for which I have the greatest Value.

- To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorfet, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governour of Ireland
- The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeffes in Parliament affembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, do, with the greatest Satisfaction, attend your Grace, to offer our fincereft Thanks for your excellent Speech to both Houses of Parliament.

We beg Leave 'to congratulate your Grace upon your being appointed Chief Governour of this Kingdom, and to express our Confi-dence, that the Welfare and Interest of this Nation will be maintained and promoted by your Grace's vigilant and wife Administration.

The Commons of Ireland very naturally conceive the greateftExpectations from a Perfor, whole Birth intitled him to the first Diftinctions of a Subject, and whole perfonal Honour and Integrity have raifed to the highest Offices in Great Britain. And they have the ftrongeft Reafon to hope, from your Grnce's unwearied Endeavours for the Good of this long been the Ornament of one Kingdom, they shall find your Grace the Guardian and Support of another.

We are highly fenfible of his Majefty's Goodness in committing the Government of Ireland to your Grace, at a Time when the Nation is fo greatly diffrefled by the Publick Debts and the Decay of Trade : We beg Leave to affure your Grace, that under thele Difficulties, we will grant, to the best of our Power, fuch effectual Supplies as may provide for the Debt of the Nation, and support his Majesty's Government with Honour.

By our Unanimity and Temper in all our Confultations, we shall endeavour to render your Grace's Administration eafy and honourable. And we hope, from a Reprefentation of a true State of this Kingdom, and of the Zeal, Loyalty and Affection of his Majefty's Protestant Subjects of Ireland, by a Person of your Grace's Candor and Humanity, we shall be happy in the Continuance of his Majesty's Royal Favour and Protection.

Bruen Worthington } Cl. Parl. Dom. Com. lfaac Ambrofe.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anfwer.

YOUR Satisfaction in my Endeavours for the Interest of this Kingdom, gives me the greatest Pleasure. Nothing shall be wanting on my part to answer the Expectations of this House of Commons, who express so much Zeal to promote his Majesty's Service, and the Ease of my Administration.
