Copenhagen, April 26, N. S. The King of Denmark's Departure for Norway is deferred, and some here begin to think that the Voyage will not take Place this Summer, though the necessary Orders for that Expedition were given, and the Preparations made with all diligence. Hague, May 2, N. S. The Advices concerning the Death of the Elector of Mentz have been various here for some Days, but the Palatine Minister was informed Yesterday from his Court of the Certainty of it, and that he died on the 18th Instant at Breslaw, not the 10th as it was first reported. After many Conferences between Count Sinzendorff and the Deputies of the States to adjust the Reimbursement of Six Millions of Florins due to this Country upon the Security of the Tolls on the Scheldt, M. Proly a Banker of Antwerp is arrived here with the necessary Credit for that Reimbursement, which is to be made within a Year.
